TV Franchise Goes To Rego At Wellsville

Hoboken Firm To Install Cable For 20-Year Operation

Legislation granting Rego Industries of Hoboken, N. J., a franchise for installation and operation of a community television cable service was adopted by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night by a 4-1 vote.

The dissenting vote was cast by Councilman Paul Todd, who raised several questions as to what he called differences in verbal promises made earlier by the firm and the actual wording of the ordinance.

The legislation grants the firm a 20-year franchise. Todd said the company's first proposal called for a monthly charge of $4.50 to $4.95 for subscribers but the ordinance actually provides that the firm may charge a maximum of $5.50 per month, with a 10 per cent discount for prompt payment.

Todd asked members if they "actually know what is being voted on?" The legislation also provides the firm may charge each subscriber a maximum installation fee of $9.90 at the time a service connection is made. It is left to the discretion of the company whether or not it may uniformly allow extended payments for such installations at the rate of $1 per month.

Todd also pointed out that under the terms in the ordinance, Rego does not have to build for possibly two years. The legislation stipulates the firm shall begin construction within 15

Wellsville Parking Free For Next Week

As a way of saying "Merry Christmas," Wellsville City Council Tuesday night granted free parking for a week beginning Saturday.

No money will be required in the parking meters along the streets through Dec. 28, inclusive, for the convenience of shoppers. The free parking is granted each year at this time.

Year-End Report Given

New Operations Start At Crucible

The placing in operation of new flat roll facilities for stainless sheet and strip at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. of America was announced Tuesday afternoon during the company's annual year-end press conference for members of the press and radio.

In discussing the facilities, John G. Gill, vice president-production of the company, said: "The start - up of this $10-million investment in new equipment climaxes for the Midland Works an especially busy year which promises to develop into a good 1965."

Approximately 100 more are to be employed as a result of the expanded operations.

The new facilities include a second bright anneal line, a fourth primary annealing and pickling line and a second Sendzimir Mill. Located in the Cold Strip Department, the facilities were needed to meet increasing demands for stainless products, Gill said.

He added: "I want to compliment the Cold Strip employes for maintaining production under adverse conditions during installation of the new equipment. Despite the construction interference there was no great loss in production and the employes maintained quality."

"The Midland Works and its employes enjoyed a good 1964," Gill continued. "This year, this Works alone will pay out nearly $49 million in salaries and wages. Employe benefits such as vacations, holidays, pensions and insurance totaled another $12,540,000."

Gill pointed out that employes at Midland represent a residence pattern of 39 different area communities to show the spread of economic influence the plant stimulates.

"CRUCIBLE HAS confidence in its abilities and those of its employes to produce for future as well as present markets. Its continuing expansion plans for the Midland Works give, and will continue to give, evidence of faith in long - range plans and good levels of operations here," Gill said.

Among developments for next year, ground will be broken in the spring for the construction of a new continuous casting facility, announced last August.

"This new facility will permit new yields, particularly in stainless, necessary to maintain the vital competitive edge essential to the plant's continued success," Gill explained. The new facility involves pouring

Highway Officials Due

Wellsville Conference Set On Relocation Of Route 7

Wellsville City Council and officials of the State Highway Department will confer tonight on the proposed relocation of Route 7 through the city.

Council received a letter Tuesday night from Earl Nelson, deputy director of Division 11 at New Philadelphia, advising that he and other officials would welcome the opportunity to meet with members of Council and other city officials.

Nelson said he has been informed by Columbus headquarters that a consulting engineer has been invited to start preliminary planning on the project.

If constructed, the highway would link the four-lane sections between East Liverpool and Wellsville and Wellsville to Empire.

The proposal has been under consideration for several years, but no definite action has been taken. In the past, the proposed route of the new highway would follow Buckeye Ave., with a cloverleaf in the area of Wells Ave. at the floodwall. This would be to serve Route 45.

Council, along with Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare and Mayor William Daugherty, will meet at City Hall at 6 p.m. They will greet the officials and then have supper at Meade's Restaurant. The conference will follow.

Council two weeks ago ordered a letter sent to the Division II office asking for a meeting. Mayor Daugherty and Baldasare had reported previously they had conferred with Nelson on the project.

Council also scheduled a special meeting for Dec. 29 at 7:30

Union; Steel Continue In Negotiations

Optimism Voiced For Agreement In Plant-Level Talks

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Negotiators of the United Steelworkers and the basic steel industry are back at the bargaining table, although the national contract won't be reopened until Jan. 1.

USW leaders have announced plans to reopen the national contract Jan. 1. Once it is reopened the union's 450,000 members in basic steel would be free to strike in 120 days or May 1.

The opening talks dealt primarily with local plant problems such as grievance procedures, production work by shop foremen and the farming out of production jobs.

Following the sessions, which lasted about two hours, J. Warren Shaver, a U. S. Steel Corp. executive, said things went fine and he hoped an amicable agreement could be reached.

Joseph Molony, USW District 14 director at Buffalo, said "We think an agreement will be reached without a strike." He attended a bargaining session with Bethlehem Steel Corp.

When the national contract is reopened it will bring together USW President David J. McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper, a U. S. Steel vice president and chief industry negotiator. These talks will deal with such issues as wages, pensions and insurance.

Steelworkers currently average $3.03 an hour and receive seven paid holidays.

President Johnson has expressed hope that an agreement can be reached which will not prompt a price increase and set off possible price spirals in other industries.

Purse-Snatcher Gets City Woman's $80

Mrs. Margaret Smith, 215 W. 3rd St., told police a thief grabbed her purse containing about $80 Tuesday night at 7 as she walked north on Jackson St. between W. 4th and W. 5th Sts.

Mrs. Smith said the thief, running south on Jackson, grabbed her pocketbook and continued running. She said a witness later saw him get into an auto. The thief was an unidentified man or boy, described as tall, wearing glasses, a black trench coat and black trousers, police said.

In addition to the cash, the purse contained a Rosary, stamps, keys and miscellaneous items, officers said.

3 Ohio Bills Stymied By Bickering

Flareup In Senate Results In Dispute Concerning Rules

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Partisan bickering in the Ohio Senate has slowed action on three bills that might have sped the special session of the Legislature to an earlier adjournment.

The flare-up which involved House - approved measures affecting three educational institutions came Tuesday in a dispute over rules.

Democrats moved for a suspension of rules to permit an immediate vote on bills to create Cleveland State University, Toledo State Medical College, and to permit the Board of Regents to construct buildings on the Youngstown University campus and lease them to the school.

But Republicans, mindful of earlier Democratic refusal to suspend rules on other legislation, declined to go along. This means the three bills cannot come to a floor vote until Thursday.

The Senate today, meanwhile, is scheduled to act on measures to create an Adult Parole Authority and to boost the pay of county officials, members of the legislature, and members of the governor's cabinet.

House members, in recess for a week now to allow senators to catch up on their work, are scheduled to return for a floor session Thursday. The 10 a.m. session was called by Speaker Roger Cloud who said he hoped the Senate would have caught up by that time.

Cloud's call came however, before the Senate hassle in which Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens,

New 18th District Plan Exceeds Limit

The newest proposal for revamping of the 18th Congressional District would present a population total that exceeds the 400,000 limit informally set for the political subdivisions.

The inclusion of Muskingum, Guernsey, Monroe and Noble Counties, with a total population of 143,988, would raise the 18th District's population to 472,790. The present five counties now total 328,802, according to the 1960 census. Of the many proposals that have been made this is the first time Muskingum has entered into consideration for a part of the 18th.

'Great Society' Sendoff

Johnson To Give State Of Union Address At Night

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's decision to deliver his State-of-the-Union message at a prime night television-radio hour on Jan. 4 indicates he plans a rousing sendoff for his "Great Society" program.

The White House announced Tuesday that the President will address the 89th Congress at 9 p.m. EST on the day it convenes.

That would follow a precedent set by Franklin D. Roosevelt in speaking at the same hour on Jan. 3, 1936. The difference will be that Johnson will be talking to a new Congress where FDR was addressing the second session of a Congress that had been at work a year.

White House press secretary George Reedy said the unusual step was being taken because "the President considers this not only a report to Congress but a report to the American people."

Republicans were quick to note that the President had selected a prime television viewing hour. They suggested that Johnson was planning to try to rush through a legislative program.

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said he didn't know of any emergency that would require the President to come to Congress on his first day and force the holding of a night session.

Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., said he thinks "it's just politicking" for the President to speak at night.

"I suppose he wants to exploit

For Switch To Guard

Sit Tight, Wait, Reserves Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is advising reservists to sit tight and wait for the switch to the National Guard.

"Army reservists have nothing to do in preparation for the move except to continue to serve in their jobs and capacity, until the conversion is completed," it said.

Defense officials said Tuesday the National Guard will be expanded to a 550,000-man force wholly on a volunteer basis and that a Reserve unit could make the change to the Guard if 60 per cent to 70 per cent of its members agreed.

In response to a series of questions, the Army among other things confirmed reports that the conversion is due to be completed by March 31, 1966. It will begin next July 1.

These were some other questions the Army answered:

Q. What happens to men who have amassed retirement points?

A. Individuals who are transferred to the active standby Reserve may continue to amass points for retirement although at a somewhat slower rate. If the individual is transferred to the inactive standby Reserve, he will not accrue further retirement points although he does not lose those which have been previously amassed.

Q. What happens to the college ROTC programs? Will all graduates go into the Guard?

A. Nothing happens to the college ROTC program as a result of the restructuring action. Graduates will go into the Guard only on a voluntary basis. Those who do not want to go into the Guard will remain

In Battles Last Week

South Viet's Casualties Are Highest In 8 Months

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese government troops last week suffered their highest casualties in eight months in the war against the Communist Viet Cong, a U.S. spokesman said today.

Government forces killed 550 Communist guerrillas, however, compared with 260 of their own dead.

A total of 985 government troops was killed or wounded, the spokesman said. The figure did not include the battle in An Lao valley, where casualties were reported heavy.

Thirteen Americans were killed in action last week.

The U.S. Army also increased its casualty total in the Viet Cong bombing of a U.S. barracks Monday in Thu Dau Mot. First reports said four Americans wounded; the Army today said there were 13. Most of them incurred only minor wounds, the spokesman said.

Two other U.S. advisers were reported wounded today in actions against the Viet Cong.

South Viet Nam's government showed signs of cracking as 500

Cold Wave? Balmy 42 To Be Weather Fare

Some parts of the Northwest are shivering in a cold wave but none of that kind of weather reached the Tri-State District Tuesday night, despite forecasts.

Instead, the mercury fell to 18 during the night then bounded upwards and may reach a balmy — for winter — 42 this afternoon.

Montgomery Dam at Ohioview reported the 18 reading about 10 last night, and a 35 at noon today with the bright sun expected to raise the temperature another half - dozen degrees or more. But the Ohio weatherman still insists colder weather is due by Thursday with gusty winds and snow flurries or squalls. The Ohio Weather Bureau's five-day forecast says temperatures will average 7 to 9 degrees below normal through Tuesday.

Hodges Quits Cabinet Post, Connor Named

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson announced today the resignation of Luther H. Hodges as secretary of commerce and named as his successor New Jersey industrialist John T. Connor.

Connor, who will take over the commerce post Jan. 15, has been president of the New Jersey drug manufacturing firm of Merck & Co. Inc. since 1955.

The executive, 50, was active in business groups supporting Johnson during the presidential election campaign.

A-Weapons Sufficient, He Claims

Says Large-Scale Spending On Such Arms Unnecessary

PARIS (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said today the North Atlantic Treaty Organization now is so powerful in nuclear and conventional power that further large-scale investments in such weapons are unnecessary.

McNamara told NATO ministers that, generally speaking, present force goals of the alliance are adequate to meet aggression.

Except for a few countries, he said, increases in national defense budgets now are not needed.

Outside the conference, Secretary of State Dean Rusk was to meet for the second time this week with President Charles de Gaulle, chief foe of U.S. plans for an integrated Allied nuclear defense force.

With France determined to forge its own independent nuclear force, Rusk met Tuesday with diplomatic leaders from Britain, West Germany, Italy and the Netherlands to consider holding a top-level meeting early in the new year to study proposals for a NATO nuclear force.

They tentatively agreed on a meeting of deputy foreign ministers to study the U.S. proposal for a multilateral nuclear force — MLF — British suggestions for a wider Atlantic air-sea nuclear command and any other ideas on the subject any NATO member wants to bring up.

The meeting of the five foreign ministers reflected U.S. determination to proceed with plans for an Allied nuclear command. Rusk has assured De Gaulle, however, that the United States has no desire to isolate France and that the door to any NATO nuclear command

Windsor Has Blister Taken From Artery

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The 70-year-old Duke of Windsor underwent a 67-minute operation today for a removal of a large blister on an abdominal artery.

"His royal highness tolerated surgery well," a hospital spokesman said.

"The resection of the aorta involved an area of 10 to 12 centimeters (4 to 5 inches)."

The resection involved the replacement of an aneurysm—a ballooning blister the size of an orange—on the aorta with a synthetic tube.

The hospital spokesman said the duke faces "a three-hour recovery period."

Surgical patients customarily are taken to the hospital's recovery room immediately following surgery and given intensive care before being returned to their room.

The operation began at 7:32 a.m. (CST) and ended at 8:39 a.m.

Dr. Michael DeBakey, a cardiovascular surgeon of international repute, performed the operation and was assisted by five physicians, including three surgeons, an anaesthetist and a cardiologist. A Methodist Hospital spokesman said three nurses also assisted.

Autopsy Is Ordered In Death Of Couple

PETALUMA, Calif. (AP) — An autopsy has been ordered to determine what killed a former Ohio man and his wife whose bodies were found in their garage.

Harland T. Moore, 31, and his wife, Dorthea, 44, were found dead Monday. An auto in the garage had the ignition on and was out of fuel. In the home, into which the couple recently moved from Columbus, Ohio, police found a dead parrot and a large, live boa constrictor. Moore reportedly was in the aquarium business in Columbus.

Indonesia, Malaysia Units Exchange Fire

SINGAPORE (AP)—A speedboat loaded with armed Indonesians traded fire with a Malaysian territorial army unit stationed on an island off Singapore Tuesday night.

There were no known casualties, officials reported today.

Noted Detective Unit To Change Its Name

NEW YORK (AP) — In the old days, the Pinkerton National Detective Agency had a hand in tracking down such notorious badmen as Jesse James, Sam Bass and the Younger brothers.

Starting Jan. 1, the world's biggest private police force will be known simply as Pinkerton's, Inc. It wants to play down its private-eye role and emphasize its less glamorous work as industrial guards.

Robert A. Pinkerton II, the fourth-generation member of his family to head the agency, announced the name change Tuesday.

Americans Can't Knock It

Adlai E. Stevenson's warning to the new African nations to stand on their own feet and quit trying to destroy one another was well-meant and may be well-taken.

Self-determination has been a nightmarish experience for many of the Africans turned over to the brutish mercies of homegrown despots who have made the worst of the colonialists seem like Christian missionaries by comparison.

Americans are sharing the skepticism of some of these former colonialists, who have been rechanting the phrase about the "white man's burden."

Self-determination in its time and place are all right, it is being said. But they must not be premature. The trouble is that Americans can't knock self-determination under any circumstances.

Their own forefathers weren't ready for self-determination either. They were at the mercy of interfering powers—England, France, Spain, Russia.

They were beset by savages led by bestial Europeans with no compassion. Frontier atrocities in this country were as blood-curdling as anything ever thought of in the Congo—scalpings, rapings, abductions, massacres.

The Americans bickered and quarreled. Their wobbly central government had no actual authority. It was despised and challenged by everybody who nursed a grudge against central control.

Finally, the more forthright of the people who despised it formed a country of their own, seceded from the United States and fought the bloodiest Civil War in history.

Foreign nations alternately were squeamish and enthusiastic about all this bloodletting. They intervened, tried to make hay, even dreamed of setting up an extension of the French empire in Mexico.

Luckily, there was no United Nations to step in. The crazy, irresponsible Americans were permitted to go their own way, eventually they turned out all right.

Americans quit fighting organized wars with one another and settled down to an endless series of skirmishes, mostly settled in courts instead of on battlefields, under cottonwood trees and on lonely roads after midnight. It's called civilization, and we're proud of it.

47 State Reactions

The U.S. Supreme Court can expect to take an additional beating in the next few months. Legislatures in 47 states meet in regular or special session in 1965.

In its reapportionment decision of last March 22, the High Bench intoned: "The mere fact that the suit seeks protection of a political right does not mean it presents a political question."

This attitude was reaffirmed in the "One Man, One Vote" rule of last June 15 and in similar decisions of June 22. Reapportionment is the essence, the smell and woof and substance of politics.

In New Jersey, the State Supreme Court will hear argument next Monday on the validity of a new weighted voting system.

The scheme gives each legislator a vote weighted in proportion to the population of the county he represents. Thus one senator would be accorded 1 vote; another 16; still another 19.

"A secret" reapportionment plan being worked out in the New York capitol in Albany is reported to call for fractional voting.

The New York Times has commented: "While the plan is not quite so bad as the weighted voting proposal that has been advanced in New Jersey and elsewhere, since it would at least provide adequate manpower for legislative committee work, it is still open to serious objection. We see nothing sacred about county boundaries as the determining factor in legislative representation; there is no logical reason why one assemblyman could not represent to or more adjacent counties of small population."

In Florida, where the "Pork Chop Gang" controlling the legislature represents less than 15 per cent of the state's total population, the Miami Herald is plumping for a "temporary weighted vote system" to make sure that the acts passed by the legislature which meets in April "would have a chance of being legal."

But in Florida, as indeed in any state, reapportionment involves careers — and politicians resent being asked or ordered to vote themselves out of office.

Who Lost The Election?

It's hard to keep up with all the things leading Republicans are saying about one another.

But when they talk about the outcome of the 1964 presidential election, one fact looms larger than anything else they can say about that particular subject.

The fact is that President John F. Kennedy, heavily favored to win a second term, was assassinated in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963, and replaced by Lyndon Baines Johnson.

This had the psychological effect of a change of administrations. When President Johnson thereupon demonstrated his competency, he became a favorite to win against any Republican challenger in 1964.

Nothing that happened in 1964 changed this.

Yet, in a presidential campaign that found the Republicans staging a campaign inside a campaign over the candidacy of Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the idea gained credence that a second change of presidents somehow had become a political likelihood.

Sen. Goldwater, himself, says he was beaten from the start; that only someone like Dwight D. Eisenhower would have had a chance. But he also seems to be blaming other Republicans like Govs. Romney and Rockefeller for beating him.

All speculation aside, what would have beaten any GOP candidate, except Eisenhower, was the psychological advantage his opponent had of being on the job and performing acceptably. It would have taken an election miracle to have defeated President Johnson in 1964.

The Practice Of Brotherhood

The Brotherhood Awards of National Conference of Christians and Jews always are impressive.

This year's award to Thomas F. Patton, board chairman and president of Republic Steel Corp., was especially impressive. When an industrialist of Mr. Patton's importance is singled out for this kind of an award, and another industrialist like Frederick R. Kappel, board chairman of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., makes the presentation, something significant is going on in the upper echelons of American enterprise.

An ideal has been translated into a practice.

Brotherhood, sometimes regarded as a preoccupation for do-gooders and social uplifters, has found an established place among the basic American virtues.

It is not something to admire the other fellow for believing in and trying to practice, but something worth practicing here and now on the immediate scene — a rewarding personal experience that enhances even corporate values.

This should surprise no one. Actually, there has been more brotherhood in the business community than most people are aware of.

The important thing about the Thomas Pattons and the Frederick Kappels is that they are individuals of such transendent importance that their example is multiplied hundreds of times over that of ordinary men who espouse brotherhood as a practice.

Card Sharps

By Truman Twill

Scene: Dining room table.

Occasion: Addressing Christmas cards.

He: How about the Andrews?

She: Who are they?

He: They are the people I told you about in New Orleans.

She: I didn't know you met anybody there except that woman you raved about.

He: That was Missus Andrews.

She: You mean there's a Mister Andrews?

He: Of course there's a Mister Andrews. Nice fellow.

She: Do you feel like sending him a Christmas card?

He: No.

She: Then why are you asking me about the Andrews? You don't even like him.

He: I liked her.

She: I heard you. But get it through your head, you Rebel sympathizer, that I did not pick out these cards so you could philander around the South like Gen. Sherman, eating hominy grits, spoon bread and showing New Orleans beauties the trinkets in your carpet bag.

He: Don't shout

She: I am restraining myself.

He: Better you should wear a new girdle.

She: Don't get cute with me, Charley.

He: My name's Don.

She: Yeah, I could guess it. Don Wan. Take your vitamin.

He: Yes, Debbie.

She: How about the Blasingames?

He: Is he out of jail?

She: You never forget, do you, Elephant Boy?

He: Not about the hot shot from the prairies. Yipee!

She: He could ride a horse like a Centaur.

He: Your mythology is weak. You mean Satyr.

She: I mean nothing of the sort. He was a satyr all right, that kid, but he rode a Hertz centaur. Yipee yourself.

He: All right. Let's get into the you-'ll spirit. Send one of your precious cards to your favorite satyrist and I'll waste one on my Creole cutie. Turn about, foul play and who's going to lick the stamps? My mouth is stuck shut already and I'm only to Andrews and you're to Blasingame. By the way, was there a Missus Blasingame, too, or didn't you ask?

U.S. Brains Beat Jap Competition

By Victor Riesel

With the city streets glowing in the rainbow hues of Christmas lights the time has come to relate an untold story of men of good will—a tale which begins with a dinner conversation among three men of diverse pursuits and strongly contested politics. They are Ralph Cordiner, retired chairman of the board of General Electric, the International Ladies Garment Workers Union and Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Victor Riesel

They were on the dais of Time Magazine's front cover Fortieth Anniversary banquet on May 6, 1963. Some whimsical editor had placed the ebullient Dubinsky, confidant of FDR, JFK and LBJ, between conservatives Cordiner and Goldwater.

During the good-natured conversation, Dubinsky twitted Cordiner, much to Goldwater's amusement, by saying that his son-in-law had given him a Japanese-made portable TV set. Cordiner moved in fast. He told the labor leader that recently the best brains of GE's scientific, engineering, designing and production staffs had been called together.

THE COLLECTIVE brains of this American corporation were told that it was now vital to develop a portable set which could compete with the Japanese Sony product or plants and jobs and markets would wither.

Such a product already was on the boards, Cordiner told Dubinsky and in two months he would deliver one of the Garment Workers' leader which would be better and undersell the Japanese set. Two months later, the intercom buzzed in Dubinsky's union office. He was told there was a man out front carrying a portable TV set for "D". The union chief okayed the delivery, and in walked Cordiner—GE's chief executive office—all alone, TV set in hand.

GE's chairman of the board flipped the dials and told the labor leader that not only was it a better "personal portable" but that it would sell for $99, $40 or $50 less than the Japanese product.

A FEW DAYS later Dubinsky sent Cordiner the following note:

"I was pleased to have you visit our office last week. Your presenting me with one of the new model GE personal TV sets reminded me of an instance that occurred several years ago when I had dinner . . . at Gov. Harriman's home. After the dinned a fine old cognac was served. Gov. Harriman asked me how I liked it. To be truthful, I said, I have better cognac at home, but your wine was out of this world.

"On arriving home from the office several days later I found . . . a case of wine. When I called Gov. Harriman to thank him I told him that the next time I would know enough to keep my mouth shut.

"Now as a result of bragging to you about my Sony TV I find myself the proud owner of one of your first new GE TV sets and, what is more, delivered by you personally. I must say I would have a more difficult time presenting you with one of our industry's products . . . I have already made use of the set and must say that I find it produces a fine clear picture and is a pleasure to watch.

A FEW DAYS later Cordiner wrote to Dubinsky:

"I too enjoyed the visit with you and was pleased to learn that the GE personal TV receiver is performing satisfactorily. My pride as you could sense was that GE men in all areas of the organization could make such a fine joint contribution in designing and producing . . . and that under our American system these GE associates were awarded with adequate compensation and benefits far exceeding those competitors residing in either Japan or Europe.

"As you probably noted from my recent comments as a guest writer for Victor Riesel, I . . . think that all of us in the economy must address our attention to obtaining the correct answers to assure an ever increasing participation of U.S. products and services in the world market so that we do not export jobs from this country to other aggressive industrial countries. . . ."

Both men in later conversations with friends expressed pride in the brains and skill of American executives and labor—especially when they work smoothly together.

It is this labor-management cooperation which has enabled GE not only to raise wages but to cut prices on the millions of American-made Christmas bulbs you now see twinkling on a thousand streets.

SO ROUGH a competitor has the company been that the Japanese producers of such bulbs have dwindled from 400 firms to 250. The industry there has been forced to move from its traditional bulb manufacturing site in Shinagawa, Tokyo, to the rural areas in Akita Prefecture, Northern Honshu, in search of cheaper labor and lower production costs to compete with America's firms here.

It's the same story in the transistor radio field. Back in '62 the Japanese had two-thirds of the American transistor market and more than 40 per cent of the total radio market here.

The Japanese prices were spectacularly below domestic makes. So GE, Admiral, Zenith, Emerson, Motorola, among other companies, swung into action. Union-management team work, automation employe cooperation and worker suggestions developed new products at lower costs. The Japanese competition was beaten back. Jobs were saved. Profits made.

Besides brains, it took mutual trust and pride in workmanship and in country.

So for all these men of good will it's a merrier Christmas.

Campus Communists

By David Lawrence

Hoover Fires Warning On Activities

On the surface, it appears as if campus demonstrations are merely the exercise of free speech or perhaps the aberrations of overzealous youth. But J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has just told the American people to take a second look at what's happening in many of their colleges across the country.

David Lawrence

Speaking in New York City over the weekend before the Pennsylvania Society, Mr. Hoover stated that foremost among the programs and activities currently being directed against the young people of the United States is "a new Communist - oriented youth organization, the Dubois Clubs of America, which was founded last June at a special meeting in California dominated and controlled by the Communists."

He described it as "a continuation of the campus - speech program which has contributed so successfully to the Communist party's efforts to reach the student bodies of American colleges and universities."

THE DIRECTOR of the FBI said that the Communist party in this country "is not simply un-American — it is Anti-American in every conflict of issues between Washington and Moscow," and its members are "not simply pro - Soviet — they are deliberately and intentionally an active part of the inflexible Soviet empire." He added:

"Today, these rabid emissaries of Red fascism are engaged in an intensive campaign to subvert the minds and win the support of American youth."

Mr. Hoover asked a significant question as follows:

"Why are communist spokesmen so anxious to appear on college campuses, yet so tight-lipped before grand juries, committees of Congress and in our courts of law? Why do glib-tongued party members suddenly lose their voices when placed under oath? The answer is: They are afraid of the truth — just as they fear decency and justice and God!

"Let me repeat what I have said before: We are at war with the Communists and the sooner every red - blooded American realizes this the safer we will be."

The head of the FBI last March warned college presidents throughout the country of "an organized attempt by foreign money to disrupt the universities of America" by the use of "bogus students and bogus faculty members."

IN AN INTERVIEW in U. S. News & World Report this week, Mr. Hoover says:

"I have taken the position that it is unfortunate that some colleges in this country have provided avowed Communists—some of whom have been convicted and have served time in the penitentiary, such as Gus Hall, general secretary of the Communist party in the United States — a platform from which to espouse their godless ideology of chicanery, deceit and treachery."

Mr. Hoover in his speech last Saturday night did not confine himself solely to Communist activity on the college campuses. He dealt with the Communist party's attempts to infiltrate the civil rights movement in America. He said:

"Nowhere have the devious tactics of the Communist party been more forcefully demonstrated than in the party's efforts to drive a wide breach of racial misunderstanding in this country and to capitalize upon areas of dissension and unrest.

"Let me emphasize that the American civil rights movement is not, and has never been, dominated by the Communists — because the overwhelming majority of civil rights leaders in this country, both Negro and white, have recognized and rejected Communism as a menace to the freedoms of all.

"But there are notable exceptions — dangerous opportunists and morally corrupt charlatans who would form an alliance with any organization, regardless of its nature, to advance their own power and prestige.

"We must maintain a constant vigil against these imposters, as well as against other zealots who would shortcut the orderly processes of government and demand a mantle of special privilege under the law. The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been the target of both extremes in the civil rights issue, and I believe this shows the FBI has followed the proper course in its handling of this most delicate issue.

"Let me reaffirm that so long as I remain its director, the FBI will never be intimidated by the illogical criticisms and pressures of those detractors who would have us exceed some areas of our authority and grossly neglect others. We will continue to carry out every assigned duty thoroughly, promptly, impartially and without apology to anyone."

MR. HOOVER had some sharp words for the Ku Klux Klan and for the activities of other racist groups. He deplored the fact that, when nine men were brought to trial in a state court in Mississippi following a series of racial bombings, they were "given suspended sentences and released on probation." He characterized this as "blindness and indifference to outrageous acts of violence" which encourage others to defy the law.

The director of the FBI has in recent months become one of the most articulate public officials, and apparently is not willing to let the attacks on the FBI by various pressure groups go unanswered.

Great Landmarks

By James Marlow

In all its history five decisions of the Supreme Court stand out as the great landmarks in its handling of civil rights. The last one came this week.

These decisions have been spread out over more than a century. In the course of it the court completely reversed itself, which in turn is a reflection of the change in attitude in this country toward Negroes.

1. The Dred Scott decision of 1857. It said slaves and their descendants were not U.S. citizens.

2. The 1883 decision which said it was constitutionally all right for owners of places of public accommodation, like hotels or inns, to discriminate against Negroes. This, of course, included refusing to serve them.

3. The 1896 decision, with its tremendous impact on American life and history for more than half a century. This said it was constitutional to segregate Negroes from whites so long as they got equal treatment.

4. The 1954 decision banning public school segregation. This completely reversed the 1896 decision and opened the doors of American life to Negroes by declaring segregation by its very nature was unconstitutional.

5. The decision Monday. This said hotels or motels or other places of public accommodation — if they are involved in interstate commerce — cannot refuse to serve Negroes because they're Negroes. This threw out the decision of 1883.

Today In History

Today is Wednesday, Dec. 16, the 351st day of 1964. There are 15 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1773, a band of men disguised as Indians boarded the ship Dartmouth in Boston Harbor as others stood watch. They seized 342 chests of tea and tossed them into the sea. It was the climax of the colonists' fight against taxes levied by the British Parliament.

On this date

In 1689, Parliament passed the English Bill of Rights.

In 1861, American actress Lillian Russell was born.

In 1944, Nazi forces opened a large-scale offensive into the Ardennes area to start the Battle of the Belgian Bulge.

Ten years ago—The Western Big Three foreign ministers discussed strengthening anti-Communist defenses in their Paris conference.

Five years ago—The Japanese Supreme Court ruled that stationing American armed forces in Japan was legal under the post war constitution.

TV Franchise Goes To Rego

months from the effective day and basic service shall be rendered within an additional nine months.

James Coffee and J. S. Fisher, representatives of Rego, were present. Coffee said this in essence is the same ordinance passed in East Liverpool.

Coffee, when questioned, said formal application with the telephone company for pole rights was made about 10 days ago. "This has been held up as we didn't have the franchise in Wellsville and wanted to file for both East Liverpool and Wellsville at the same time," he said. Coffee said no application has been made to the Ohio Power Co. for pole rights.

Coffee also informed Council his firm would like an exclusive franchise. This would mean Rego would be the only firm allowed to operate such a system in the community.

Todd also said he objected to the length of the franchise. He said nothing is contained in the ordinance on the cost of hooking up more than one set in a home. "This all should be in black and white," he said.

Coffee said Rego has never installed a system. He said he had been in the business of selling equipment for such systems before joining Rego.

Coffee said he expects to begin in January in East Liverpool, if all permits are obtained.

Les C. Rau, general manager of the Neptune Broadcasting Corp. at Steubenville, also asked for consideration for a franchise. His offer was made to the city after the first reading was given the Rego franchise Nov. 3.

Rau said the rate offered previously has been revised downward. The new rates offered by Neptune also offered to pay Wellsville 3 per cent of its gross receipts for the privilege of a franchise.

Rego did not offer any remuneration to the city. Coffee commented last night the firm could be taxed by the city.

Rau said his firm would build the system and its plans did not hinge on East Liverpool. Neptune is applying for franchises in other communities. The same offer is being made everywhere, Rau said. Councilman W. C. (Bill) Stoddard moved, seconded by Councilman Dwight MacLean, the legislation be presented for the third and final reading.

Councilmen Meryle Kenney, MacLean, Stoddard and Nunzio Lombardozzi voted in favor of the move. Todd voted no.

When presented for adoption, the vote was the same. Councilmen Aguin Bowling and Walter Henthorne were absent.

Council members asked Solicitor William Bush if some of the sections of the legislation could be amended later. Bush said they could, but suggested the amendments be made before the legislation was adopted.

The legislation will take effect in 30 days, unless vetoed by Mayor William Daugherty.

Hearings Due Jan. 6 For 2 Cited Motorists

Non-appearance of the arresting officer from the State Highway Patrol today forced a second continuance in hearings for two Wellsville men cited after a collision Dec. 1 on the East Liverpool - Wellsville "superroad."

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff granted a continuance in the cases until Jan. 6. The defendants are Robert G. Grimm, 31, of 2035 Chester Ave., accused of "decreasing speed without giving an appropriate signal to traffic in the rear," and Major William McDowell, 40, of 1305 Hillcrest, charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

The cases had been continued to today from Dec. 9, but the judge then learned that the patrolman had not been advised. The patrol alleged Grimm slowed to observe an auto involved in an earlier wreck and his car then was hit from the rear by McDowell's.

prime radio and TV time and make a big show of it," Tower said.

However, Sen. Milton R. Young, R-N.D., said he didn't think it was a bad idea.

"It's a bit unusual but I think it will be all right," Young said.

Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, quipped that "coming at such a late hour, I trust his message will be illuminating."

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, said "the novelty of the hour is intriguing."

In response to other questions, Reedy said he didn't think it would be wise to anticipate that Johnson might include in the State-of-the-Union message any figures on budget expenditures for the next fiscal year, as he did last year.

No time has been set for sending the budget to Congress or for forwarding to it the annual economic report. The economic report has a Jan. 20 deadline but that also is Inauguration Day and thus it may be sent to Congress earlier.

Q. What choices now are open to draft-age youths who have been able to enlist in the six-month Reserve program, go on active duty for that period and serve out the rest of their six-year Reserve obligation with either Guard or Reserve units?

A. Under the proposed change, an individual has the opportunity to enlist for Reserve unit service only in the National Guard.

Crucible

molten steel into continuous strands.

He also announced the installation of a new hot scarfer machine and 80 feet of new roll line in the Blooming Mill Department. He said preparations for the new machine have been made. The company is waiting for an opportune time in production schedules for final installation.

"THE NEW hot scarfer," he said, "is another step forward in the company's continuing modernization aimed at making better product more efficiently."

Scarfing is a cleaning operation. After rolling, surface defects and imperfections are removed by burning a thin layer off the surface of the steel by means of a specially constructed burning torch.

The new machine is designed to simultaneously scarf the four sides of hot steel slabs by the oxygen - fuel process at normal hot - rolling temperatures.

In continuing his year-end report, Gill pointed out that "this year we have seen two important Midland Works businesses closed down. The hollow drill operation and silicon steels were phased out because of their unprofitability."

He hastened to emphasize, however, that business has not been lost as a result, but that the slack has been taken up with much more profitable lines.

"WE CONSTANTLY are evaluating every aspect of our business to determine whether we invest money in facilities or whether we phase out," Gill explained. "We must do this to keep competitive. We believe we are better than our competiton, but the gap is small between the best and the worst. Delivery and quality mean the difference ultimately. When we can't produce these to competitive standards, we must make a choice."

Progress was reported in Crucible's war against air pollution, with a number of steps in the past year reviewed which will contribute to a solution of the problem.

Gill said that the company feels safe in saying that within approximately two years about 75 per cent of the major air pollution problems will have been eliminated through an extensive investment in needed corrective practices.

Among steps taken within the last 12 months were the adding of air pollution control equipment in the new facilities starting up, such as the new hot scarfer.

DUST CONTROL and cleaning equipment at the new "Z" mill and fume and washer equipment on the new pickling and bright anneal lines to eliminate obnoxious pickling fumes will not only aid abatement but, at the same time, will provide improved working conditions, Gill stated.

The company has made other significant achievements in recent years to decrease smoke and dirt levels in the borough.

These include the elimination of gas producers at the Boiler House; elimination of coal - fired equipment and the installation of dust collectors, orifice washers, a dust collection system at the Coke Plant, a drag collector at the sinter plant which was further modified with the addition of spray equipment and installation of a precipitron on the No. 1 blast furnace.

Gill said, "Crucible at Midland is concerned about this problem and has been conscientious in its attempts to identify and correct sources of air contamination.

During 1964, the Midland Works continued its interest in education. Besides making current event films available to area high schools, students attended a three-day science symposium and Engineering Week observance at the Midland Works.

THE COMPANY also continued its cooperative training program for college students and encouraged high school children of employes to take qualifying tests for Crucible Scholarships offered under the National Merit Scholarship Program. Three such scholarships were awarded last year. Stephen Neville of East Liverpool was among those receiving a scholarship.

The Midland Works also contributed to the Citizens Scholarship Foundation of the East Liverpool area, which includes Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia school districts.

During 1964, nearly 4,000 toured the Midland Works, including Midland Works employes, employes of the company's offices at Pittsburgh and numerous area civic clubs and organizations.

The program of employe tours began in 1963. The company plans to continue them in 1965.

Council gave first reading to a resolution granting permission for the installation of a copying machine in the police department. It will be purchased by Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 11 and FOP Associates Lodge 51.

The resolution also grants the lodges permission to copy accidents reports and charge a reasonable fee for the sale of the copies to insurance firms.

Council received notification from the State Department of Liquor Control that Edwin and William Craig have filed application for a C-2 carryout permit for a business at 1603 Main St. Council will investigate to determine if there are any objections.

Baldasare said in response to an inquiry that the city should receive its new garbage packer truck Thursday.

Councilman Walter Henthorne was absent. A letter was read from him reminding Council the ordinance granting overtime pay to members of the police department expires this month and asked that it be renewed.

He also pointed out an unsanitary condition being created by the Pennsylvania Railroad cleaning out debris from boxcars at the lower end of town. The Board of Health has been informed.

Councilman Nunzio Lombardozzi asked the street and light committee to investigate installation of a new street light on Crawford Alley between 21st and 22nd Sts.

He also pointed out some sidewalks in the city are in bad condition and asked the procedure for having them repaired. He was told there is a city ordinance governing the problem. He said he will investigate.

He also reported further on the proposal for the sale of city-owned land to the Georgetti River - Rail terminal.

Orin C. Smith Elected As Police Lodge Head

Patrolman Orin C. Smith was elected Tuesday night as president of Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 29, succeeded Patrolman Jerry F. Adkins.

Other new officers are: Patrolman Robert B. Pyle, vice president; Patrolman Karl Samples, secretary - treasurer; Patrolman Ronald J. Brookes, chaplain; Patrolman J. A. Walsh, inner guard; Patrolman Paul Blevins, outer guard; Patrolman Howard Bosworth, three - year trustee, and Officer Adkins, two - year trustee.

F. C. Fehrman Claimed At 71

Frederick C. Fehrman, 603 Harrison St., Newell, a retired accountant, died Tuesday at 3:20 p. m. at City Hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 71.

Mr. Fehrman was born in London, England, July 16, 1893, to Henry Fehrman and Meta Dohle Fehrman. He came here five years ago from Baltimore, where he was employed by the Davis Sewell Accounting Firm.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Frances A. Fehrman at home; a step - daughter, Mrs. Jean Hester of East Liverpool; a brother in England, a granddaughter, a great - grandchild and several nephews and nieces.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Charles Haddock, pastor of the Newell United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday.

Paul E. Barth

Paul Edwin Barth, 37, of Avon Lake, a native of Wellsville, and a World II veteran, died Tuesday at 4:30 a.m. at his home, following an illness of several months.

Mr. Barth was born June 22, 1927, to Albert J. Barth and Mildred Seeley Barth. He attended the Wellsville schools. Following the war, he worked at the Crucible Steel Co. and then at the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co., also in Midland. He was transferred to the Cleveland plant of the Bliss Co. about 10 years ago. For the past two years he was a custodian of Avon Lake High School. He was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church at Avon Lake.

In addition to his parents at Wellsville, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Betty Mangan Barth, two sons, Terry Barth and Gerry Barth, and a daughter, Melinda Louise Barth, all at home; a brother, Donald W. Barth of Wellsville; a sister, Mrs. Donald (Patricia) Poynter of Wellsville R.D., and maternal grandfather, George W. Seeley of Wellsville.

Friends may call tonight at the Burmeister Funeral Home in Avon Lake, where the Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m.

Services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Wellsville by Fr. Gerald X. Curran. Burial will be in St. Elizabeth Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville Thursday afternoon and evening. Fr. Curran will have prayer service at the funeral home Thursday evening.

Edwin Myers

Edwin Myers, 64, of South Miami, Fla., a former resident of East Liverpool, died of a sudden heart attack Tuesday morning at home.

He and his wife, Mrs. Jane Myers, who survives at the home, left this area about seven years ago.

Mr. Myers was the owner of a novelty shop on Stewart Hill back of Chester on Route 30. He was head of the Sanitary Department in South Miami. He was a former member of the East Liverpool First United Presbyterian Church, where he served as a trustee.

Services and burial will be Thursday at South Miami.

James B. Hunter

James B. Hunter, 657½ Lincoln Ave., a retired steelworker, died this morning at 9:30 at City Hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 83.

He was born in Toledo Sept. 27, 1881. He had been employed at the Carnegie - Illinois Steel Co. mill in Pittsburgh.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Maude Hunter at home.

and Senate Minority Leader Frank W. King, were the principal figures.

Mechem asserted the special session which began last Nov. 9 "would have been over days ago" except for the refusal of Democrats to suspend rules on other legislation, including a resolution calling on Congress to provide for a Constitutional convention on legislative reapportionment.

King delayed action on the resolution which he described as an attempt to get around U.S. Supreme Court decisions requiring election of lawmakers from areas of near equal population.

Among resolutions adopted by the Senate Tuesday was one urging early action on construction of the Lima branch of Ohio State University.

Sen. Ross Pepple, R - Allen, said Lima is providing 600 acres for the branch and that $3.3 million appropriated for buildings should be used as soon as possible.

Congressional redistricting, which could well be the last action of the lame duck session, remained in the hands of a joint conference committee which has indicated little progress since its appointment nine days ago.

Both houses will have to act on that measure before the lawmakers can take final adjournment which, some lawmakers believe, now will not take place until late this week and possibly next week.

will always be open to the French.

In an address to the NATO Council Tuesday, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville made a new attack on the U.S. proposal for a NATO fleet of surface ships armed with Polaris missiles and manned by crews of mixed nationality.

Couve de Murville claimed he could not comprehend how supporters of the project could say they want to halt the spread of nuclear weapons to other nations and at the same time propose that non-nuclear nations have a voice in the use of such weapons.

Buddhist monks and nuns began a 24-hour hunger strike.

Reliable sources reported that Phan Tan Chuc, education and cultural affairs minister, resigned this morning. He was in disfavor with the Buddhists.

Unconfirmed reports said some other ministers may resign.

The Buddhist hunger strike and one last weekend were aimed at toppling Premier Tran Van Huong's regime. Buddhist leader Thich Tam Chau declared today that bigger strikes would be planned if Huong "continues his lies and distortions against Buddhists and his attempts to disunify us."

Tam Chau, addressing 500 devotees inside the Buddhist Institute pagoda, said Huong was "becoming a dictator like Ngo Dinh Diem and is being helped by some foreigners."

This remark was aimed at the United States, which has been giving full backing to Huong.

Ta mChau charged Huong had tried to split the Buddhists by creating the Association of General Buddhism.

Tam Chau said the Buddhists would keep up a campaign of non-violence and non-cooperation until the Huong government is replaced.

Earlier Buddhist attempts to oust Huong through demonstrations and riots failed when the government sent troops and police against the rioters. The Buddhist leadership is trying to re-establish the powerful political position it held for a time after its major part in the overthrow of President Diem. Huong so far has refused to be pressured by the monks.

New Pension Law Reminder Given By Soldiers Aid Office

LISBON — The Columbiana County Soldiers Relief office at the Courthouse issued a reminder today that the new pension law becomes effective Jan. 1, and explained the various choices recipients have under the changed program.

All veterans and widows who were on the pension rolls prior to July 1, 1960, and still receive pension under what is called the "Old Law," have received a pension election card in the mail.

If you elect to receive a pension under the new law, complete the card and return it to the Veterans Administration. The election card must be returned by May 1 to receive payments from Jan. 1. Consider electing if:

(1) You are a veteran or widow without dependents and your income will not exceed $600.

(2) You are a veteran or widow with a dependent and your income will not exceed $2,000.

(3) You are a veteran receiving a pension based on aid and dependents.

(4) You are receiving death benefits on behalf of a child where there is not widow entitled.

Veterans and widows drawing VA pensions have received their income questionnaire for 1964. These must be completed and returned to the Veterans Administration not later than Jan. 31, otherwise the pension will be withheld.

You must report all income received to the VA. The wife's income must be reported if you are under the present law. The full amount must be reported. The Veterans Administration will make deductions for which you are entitled.

All persons drawing pensions under the present law will have their pensions increased with the January check. Do not write the VA about the increase. You will receive it.

If you have any questions on the new GI insurance plan or need help in any way, contact the Soldiers' Relief Office at the Courthouse. If a veteran or widow is housebound, because of illness or disability, the county service officers will call at your home to assist you. You may phone Lisbon 424-5132 for this appointment.

GI loan entitlement for World War II and some Korean War veterans will end soon. Korean conflict veterans with short periods of wartime service will be first to lose their GI loan entitlement, starting Jan. 31.

After that date, entitlement will end each day, according to a formula established by Congress in 1961. This adds 10 years to the date of veteran's discharge from wartime service and adds one additional year for each 90-day period of service.

Maximum deadline date of all World War II eligibility cases ends July 25, 1967. Maximum date on all Korean eligibility will expire Jan. 31, 1975. At that date, the GI loan program will come to an end.

If you are thinking about buying a home through a GI loan, contact your county service officers for the deadline date of entitlement and they will explain the procedure you have to follow. New provisions to this law became effective Sept. 1 and they must be followed.

You've overbeaten those "stiffly beaten" egg whites if they lose their gloss and look dull and if small curdlike spots appear. When egg whites get that "dry," they break down and lose the air that was incorporated.

DAR Chapter Guest Talks On Items In Nativity Scene

Mrs. H. Gene Toot, wife of the associate minister of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, was guest speaker for the meeting of the Rebecca Griscom Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Monday night with Mrs. Eugene Hall of Armstrong Ln.

She explained the history, legend and origin of the articles she used in an original arrangement of evergreens, holly, candles and ornaments and a Nativity scene she created on a white styrofoam base. Introduced by Mrs. Stanley Rose, program chairman, she also read the Christmas Scripture from St. Matthew.

Mrs. William E. Kaiser prepared roll call on the customs and history of Christmas in the early years of this country and several foreign lands.

Mrs. Arthur Cloran, regent, presided for business and announced the 75th anniversary of the founding of the national society will be celebrated in 1965.

Mrs. Howard Martin, chaplain, conducted devotions, and Mrs. Kaiser, flag chairman, led the salute.

A report on gifts to be sent to shutins was made by Mrs. John Fraser. Mrs. George Hales and Mrs. Veda Rochette were welcomed into membership.

Mrs. Marion Poynter, national defense chairman, reported on the Ohio Good Citizenship tests taken by the senior high school girls and read several articles from the National DAR magazine.

The social committee was comprised of Mrs. Rose, chairman, Mrs. Earl Gibson, Mrs. David Zimmer, Mrs. Frank Dawson, Mrs. Robert Stewart and Mrs. Percy Bryan.

The next session Jan. 11 with Mrs. Cloran of Calcutta will feature the annual business meeting.

Tobacco Heir Dies

LUCERNE, Switzerland (AP) — Richard J. Reynolds Jr., 58, tobacco heir who made his own mark in shipping and aviation, died in Lucerne Monday. He had suffered from chronic emphysema. He formerly was Winston Salem, N.C., mayor and national Democratic finance chairman.

Post Office Hit By Yule Mail Deluge

Although they had the days of the week confused, East Liverpool residents took advantage of fair weather Monday to throw a "Sunday punch" at the Post Office, deluging it with cards and parcels.

Over 60,600 pieces of mail were canceled and one of the heaviest parcel mailings in many years was received, Postmaster Samuel W. Brown said.

One firm mailed 350 gift packages and another brought in 125. That's in addition to the two or three packages each patron brought to the stamp windows.

But it may mean good news for the employes. The heavy mailing probably means they could have the yearly battle over by Wednesday.

However, both the elements and patrons will play a major role, the postmaster said, renewing his appeal to mail early.

Stamp windows will be open until 5 p. m. and money orders will be available until noon Saturday.

The "after Church" window to sell stamps and accept parcels again will be open from noon to 4 p. m. Sunday, Brown said.

Two Ohio Men Cleared Of Fraud

CLEVELAND (AP)—Kenneth Burdman of Youngstown and Martin J. Emerman of Akron have been cleared of charges of obtaining government funds for home buying and home improvements through false statements.

U. S. District Judge James C. Connell dismissed the charges Tuesday after hearing testimony presented by attorneys by both sides.

Burdman, 27, was indicted with his uncle, Saul Friedkin of Youngstown, last April on charges of fraudulently obtaining Veterans Administration loans for persons buying homes in Youngstown.

Friedkin, 49, pleaded guilty and was placed on probation for five years. Judge Connell ruled that the evidence against Burdman was insufficient.

Emerman, 32, was indicted with three other Akron men last February on charges of obtaining Federal Housing Administration loans through false statements for persons desiring to make home improvements in the Akron area.

Evidence presented before Judge Connell showed that Emerman did not participate in the sales or contract dealings. The other three men are awaiting trial.

Diningroom Problems Something Special

Among them are dampness, crickets, bats and a constant 54-degree temperature.

She operates the Snowball Dining Room in Mammoth Cave —267 feet below the earth's surface.

"National Park rules don't allow us to harm the crickets or bats," she explained. "Once they migrate in, they like it so well they stay. They all seem to know it."

Mrs. Scott can keep only two days supply of food in her underground kitchen.

Telephone calls from guides bringing parties into the cave help alert the staff in preparing the meals. The dining room has served more than 1,400 in a single day.

County Gets Advance On Poor Relief Funds

Columbiana County's share of poor relief funds mailed in advance of customary distribution because of the Christmas holiday totals $18,363, State Auditor Chester Goble announced today.

A total of $2.5 million was mailed early to the 88 counties, Goble said, in keeping with policy of making the funds available to brighten the holiday season for those on relief rolls.

Distribution of the funds, obtained from part of utilities excise tax, was formerly made in January or February. Jefferson County's share is $60,660.

House GOP Hints Switch In Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans meet today with talk of a change in leadership in the air, but nothing specific on the program.

Privately, several of the Republicans said they are sure a number of their colleagues would like to see Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana replaced as leader. So far nobody had stepped up to lead a revolt.

In any case, final action could not be taken until Jan. 4, when the newly elected and re-elected Republican members have their first caucus of the new session.

Officially, the Republican conference of old and new members scheduled speeches by Halleck and Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, conference chairman and the member most often mentioned as a possible replacement for Halleck.

Tuesday night, Ford gave the talk of supplanting Halleck a little more substance by saying, "I have made no decision" on whether to challenge the Indianan.

However, the 49-year-old favorite of the Young Turks also told a reporter, "I have made a maximum effort to disassociate this leadership matter with the meeting tomorrow."

He added he has set no time when he may make a decision on whether to be a candidate for leader.

Most of the subjects listed for conference discussion had to do with the effort of the Republicans, who lost a net of 38 House seats in last month's election, to keep from being pushed too far to the wings of the congressional stage. There will be 140 Republicans in the new House compared to 295 Democrats.

In this category are long standing Republican demands for the right to name more staff members directly responsible to the minority of House committees.

The conference also listed for discussion a proposal first made by some Democratic liberals and now backed by the leadership for a rules change that would prevent the House Rules Committee from delaying more than 21 days a bill the leadership wants brought up for action.

Mission Board Greets 4 As New Members

Richard Kittridge, Dale Stephens, Dan Henderson and Eston Maple were welcomed as new members at a meeting of the Advisory Board of the Community Rescue Mission Tuesday night at the center. Roland Edgar chairman, presided.

Supt. Carl Mansfield presented the November report, which showed 182 were provided beds and 589 meals served.

He also gave a report on the recent Harvest - Home festival and said that many churches and organizations contributed to the success of the project. The next meeting will be held Jan. 19.

3 Recreation Groups To Convene Thursday

Three groups concerned with recreation programs in East Liverpool will meet Thursday night at 8 in Mayor Merrill D. Hall's office, primarily to outline areas of individual responsibility.

They are the Recreation Council, the Board of Thompson Park Commissioners and the newly-established City Park Commission. The mayor, Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper also will attend. Hall said the three groups expect to begin preliminary planning for a 1965 program.

The Executive Committee of the Recreation Council will meet at 7:30, also in the mayor's office.

Music Program Feature For Women's Fellowship

Special music featured the quarterly meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Church of Christ Monday night in the social rooms.

Mrs. Ethel Franklin, worship chairman, introduced Earl King who sang "I Heard The Bells On Christmas Day." Mrs. Doris Marshall was accompanist.

"The Living Christ" was the devotions theme and Mrs. Franklin closed with a poem, "Christmas Giving." Mrs. Nance Ossman led carols.

Miss Mildred Rose read an article, "What Can I Give Him" written by Mrs. Harriet McEwen, president of the State CWF. Miss Rose also reported on the news letter from Thailand.

During business conducted by Miss Rose, president, reports were heard from Mrs. June Jackson, secretary, and Mrs. Agnes McSwegin, treasurer.

A Christmas gift was allocated for the McAnallens, the living-link missionaries in Thailand.

Each circle reported on the completion of projects, including layettes and quilts.

A report was given of the recent session of the Lydia, Ruth and Dorcas Circles when Mrs. Allene Galloway presented a playlet, "Christmas Problems." The cast was comprised of Mrs. Geraldine Schneider, Mrs. Mary Ellen Fowler, Mrs. Lois Hohmann, Mrs. Doris Marshall and Mrs. Bess Skelly.

Sweet Adelines Entertain For Nurses Alumnae

A group from Sweet Adelines, Inc., provided entertainment for the annual Christmas dinner party of the City Hospital Nurses Alumnae Association Monday night at the Travelers Hotel.

Mrs. Nancy Beaver directed the barbershop selections. Group carols were led by Mrs. Ruth Rinehart with Mrs. Beaver pianist. Miss Mary Diddle arranged entertainment.

Mrs. Wilma Nichols, president, conducted business when the group signed cards for Mrs. Dorothy Appleby, a patient at St. John's Hospital in Steubenville, and Mrs. Betty Steffen, at Timken Mercy Hospital at Canton.

The group presented gifts to Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Ila Shingler, treasurer. A gift exchange was held.

Places were arranged for 33 at tables decorated with aqua nylon net trees. Miss Karole Kapp was in charge of decorations. Mrs. Sally Crawford gave the blessing.

Mrs. Jane Jolly was program chairman and Mrs. Lois Smith, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Shingler were in charge of reservations.

The next session will be held Jan 18 at the Metsch-Harker Nurses' Home.

Women's Club Has Annual Yule Tea At Chester

Mrs. John Brown of East Liverpool sang three solos when the Chester Women's Club held its annual Christmas tea Monday night at the First Christian Church.

The group gave the flag pledge and repeated the Club Collect in unison. Group singing followed. The Scripture reading was Luke 2:8-14.

Mrs. Harry Shaw gave a reading and Mrs. Donald Vogel an illustrated talk. Christmas readings were given by Mrs. Harry Hobbs and Mrs. Robert Schondelmayer.

Roll call was "A Christmas Thought." Mrs. Eugene Seeley, president, conducted business.

The group voted to purchase a Hancock County Tuberculosis League bond.

Mrs. Joseph Thompson, Mrs. W. W. Ingram and Mrs. F. E. Pinney were hostesses, assisted by members of the social committee.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 4 with Mrs. Harry Hobbs of Indiana Ave.

3 Cubs Given Awards During Westgate Fete

Three youths were presented awards when Cub Scout Pack 78, sponsored by the Westgate Parent - Teacher Association, held a Christmas party Monday night at the cafeteria in the school.

Bernard Stewart, cubmaster, gave the awards to Bobby Duke, Charles Coulter and Mike Savors. Fifty cubs and parents attended. Den 4 won the attendance banner. Santa Claus distributed treats. The cubs gave their parents gifts they had made at den meetings.

Refreshments were served by Den 5 with Mrs. Ruth Kays in charge. The planning committee will meet Jan. 4 at the home of Robert Kays of Prospect St.

150 At Neville School Christmas Program

About 150 attended the annual Christmas program presented by the students at Neville School Tuesday night, according to Keith Dunlevy, principal.

The children gave a playlet, "The Real Meaning of Christmas." Mrs. Marian Maola, music supervisor, was in charge.

Lead characters were portrayed by Ralph Seevers, Merchette Havens, James Keys, Darlene Walls and Beverly Davis. Piano accompanists were Mrs. Martha White and Wilbert Wolfe. A total of 110 children participated. Refreshments were served by the school PTA.

Faulty Lake Closes Raccoon Park Sports

Winter sports at Raccoon Creek State Park in Beaver County have been closed because of the danger created by a fluctuating water level of the lake, the State Department of Forests and Waters announced at Harrisburg.

Skating, ice fishing and other ice activities will not be permitted.

The lake is to be reopened in the regular park season, after spillway repairs have been completed.

Dean Honored

SALINEVILLE — Dr. Harold Rice, dean of the College of Art at the University of Cincinnati, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rice, 108 W. Main St., was honored by Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity at a Founder's Day event Saturday.

20 At Methodist Men's Meeting

Twenty attended a meeting of the Methodist Men Monday night in the Wellsville Central Methodist Church.

T. W. Liggitt of Lisbon spoke on his trip to Russia and screened slides of the country. He made the trip in August with an agricultural group.

The group sang hymns. Harold Driggs conducted devotions. Men from the First church were guests.

Post Office Job Pushed In Lisbon

LISBON — Work is continuing on construction of the community's new Post Office, but there are indications the completion date of Jan. 15 may not be met, Postmaster Howard Hochmann said today.

The structure is under roof, but shingles still must be applied. Most of the window sills are in place, but only one window has been installed.

Pipes for the heating system have been installed, but the flooring has not been put in place. The new structure will not have a basement.

The postmaster said there has been no official announcement of a delay in the completion date.

Oak Glen Parents Told Of Concert

The Oak Glen High School band will present a Christmas concert Thursday night at the school, it was announced at the meeting of the Band Parents Monday night.

Under the direction of Floyd Lancia, the program will begin at 7:30. Admission will be charged.

At the business meeting, amendments to the bylaws were read by Mrs. Alvin Reed, president. They will be voted on at the meeting Jan. 11.

Principal Russell Slack was a guest.

Trustees Give Oath To Widow At Lisbon

LISBON — Mrs. Helen Nold was sworn in Tuesday night by Clerk Richard Mason and attended her first meeting as a Center Township Trustee. She succeeded her husband, Warren Nold, who was killed recently in a truck accident.

The trustees discussed future expansion of their gravel pit near Logtown, accepted tax rates set by the Budget Commission and paid bills totaling $1,048.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 31 at 6 p.m. in their offices in the Farmers National Bank building.

Conway Rail Yards Safety Step Ordered

BEAVER — The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has ordered the Pennsylvania Railroad to maintain maximum safety practices at its Conway Yards.

The railroad was instructed to establish procedures that will "insure a common understanding" between supervisory personnel and employes on safety practices.

Particular reference to regulations affecting switching crews was cited. The PUC said that a number of safety hazards complained about by the railroad brotherhoods have been eliminated.

Further Reports Due

Collections Reach $700 For Dollars For Scholars

A total of $700 has been collected so far in the East Liverpool "Dollars for Scholars" canvass, while $357 was obtained Tuesday night in a Beaver Local District house - to - house solicitation.

Harry Martin, city chairman, said all areas of the city have been visited, but not all solicitations are complete, and further reports are expected later this week.

Those who have not been contacted may mail contributions to the drive — which provides funds for qualified college students — to Dollars for Scholars, Box 458, East Liverpool.

The campaign is held annually by the Citizens Scholarship Foundation in seven area school districts.

About 50 young people in Beaver Local, including members of the Key Club, Y-Teens and Student Council, canvassed the school district last night, Ted Taylor, high school principal and drive chairman, said.

Further solicitations are slated tonight. Anyone not contacted may send their contributions to the schools, Taylor said.

Beaver And Mill Settle Dispute On Tax Charges

BEAVER — A compromise was reached Tuesday in Beaver County Court in an appeal filed by the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. on its tax assessment for the years 1961 through 1964.

The appeal was based on the perennial problem of what is machinery and what is real estate.

The compromise reduced the assessment for 1963 and 1964 by $564,326, by $606,950 for 1962 and by $100,848 for 1961. At the beginning of this year, J. & L.'s total assessment was $18,232,082.

The compromise will cost the county approximately $20,000, the borough of Aliquippa, $35,000, and the Aliquippa School District, $60,000. The funds will be paid back in five equal installments starting next year.

The compromise was based on a Bucks County ruling in which a school district appealed the assessment of the Fairless Works of U. S. Steel.

Hospital Lists $1,998 Spent Backing Levy

The City Hospital Association spent $1,998 supporting a seventenths mill operating levy that was renewed at the general election Nov. 3, it said today in a sworn statement of campaign expenses filed with the County Election Board by Miss Nell Robinson, superintendent.

Meanwhile, the Southern Local Citizens Committee reported expenses of $244 in a campaign for a levy totaling 8.8 mills. The report was signed by Lucille Hustoh, chairman.

Friday at 4 p. m. is the deadline for the statements, required of all candidates and committees that had roles in the general election campaign. The Election Board's staff issued reminders today to four candidates who had not filed. All are unsuccessful office-seekers, the board said.

Dillon Makes Plans To Quit Cabinet Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon has made tentative plans to resign within a few months, it was learned today.

His most likely successor: Donald C. Cook of New York, head of a large utilities firm and former chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission. He is 55.

Other names that have been mentioned for the post include David Rockefeller, 49, president of New York's Chase-Manhattan Bank, and Robert B. Anderson, 54, a close associate of President Johnson and a former secretary of the Treasury. Anderson, a native Texan, now lives in Greenwich, Conn.

An administration source said it appeared unlikely Rockefeller would be appointed. He is a Republican and a brother of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Dillon, 55, a Republican, apparently plans to return to the Wall Street investment banking firm founded by his father.

Although he does not wear the same party label as President Johnson, Dillon contributed a considerable sum to Johnson's presidential campaign and there is no indication of a rift between the two men.

Sen. Kennedy Leaves Hospital Unaided

BOSTON (AP)—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., walked unaided out of a Boston hospital today almost six months to the day since a plane crash immobilized him with a broken back.

A crowd estimated at about 600 stood in 20-degree temperature to cheer the young senator as he walked slowly out of New England Baptist Hospital.

None of the crowd was aware that four hours earlier — at 5 a.m. (EST)—Kennedy secretly left the hospital and in the predawn darkness drove to Andover, 20 miles north of Boston, to visit at the gravesite of an associate killed in the plane crash which injured Kennedy.

Health Head Urges Caution On Christmas Tree Dangers

LISBON — "Even though the Christmas tree is the center of attraction at this time of year, it can cause havoc in your home if proper precautions are not taken," according to Dr. Merle K. Singer, county health commissioner.

Failure to take precautions with fire causes hundreds of deaths each year at Christmas time. "Don't spoil your Christmas this year by having a tragic accident in your home." Observe the following "don'ts" for a safe Christmas:

Don't use a tree holder without water. Saw one inch above the original cut so the tree will absorb water more readily.

Don't leave for Christmas parties without giving proper instructions to the baby-sitter regarding how to get children out of the house and how to call fire department.

Don't use an improvised ladder for trimming tree. Instead use a sturdy one and climb no further than two steps from the top.

Don't leave the house without turning off tree lights.

Don't place extension cords, if used, where they might trip a person.

Don't mix drinking and driving. If alcoholic beverages are served at your holiday parties, select a non-drinker to drive you home, or call a cab. "Let us use Christmas as a starting point for home safety for the coming year," he concluded.

When you are forming pie dough into a ball before rolling out, gather up the dough with both palms; press firmly together. Don't pat the dough together, or you'll probably over - work it. Turn the dough as you press it so that you have a ball - shaped mass.

Legion Meets Gifts Quota

Isaac Jones reported on the County Council meeting Friday night in Hanoverton.

The post will be host to the county organization Jan. 8. Lunch and refreshments will be served.

It was announced that Richard Stivason, who recently underwent surgery, has re-entered City Hospital.

Ray Cunningham, first vice commander, presided.

The capital of Jordan, Amman, has a well-preserved Roman theater, still used for entertainments. It is a relic of the time the city was known as Philadelphia and was an important stronghold in Greco - Roman times.

Cleveland Pair Ends Visit At Georgetown

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Brooks and family of Cleveland have concluded a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brooks of Georgetown. Leroy Brooks of Zanesville also returned after a visit with his parents.

Mrs. Wendell Welborn has returned after visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. James Ross, of Miamisburg, Ohio.

After losing its football opener to Columbia, 21-14, Colgate held eight rivals to 31 points. The Red Raiders won 7 of their last 8.

The International League had only five .300 hitters in 1964.

Soviet Orders Congo Figure From Country

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union charged Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe's only diplomat in Moscow with "hostile activities" today. He was ordered to close the Congolese legation and leave the country.

M. Gaston Ngambani, the Congolese charge d'affaires, was summoned to the Soviet Foreign Ministry Tuesday and told to leave. No date was set for his departure.

An announcement by Tass, the Soviet news agency, accused Ngambani of "activities unfriendly to the Soviet Union" and "impermissible actions in respect of Soviet citizens."

Tass said Ngambani's "hostile activities were particularly stepped up after the henchman of the imperialists, Tshombe, captured power in the Congo."

The statement continued: "The Congolese authorities have increased their hostile and slanderous campaign against the U.S.S.R. and its peaceful foreign policy aimed at the development of friendly relations and fraternal cooperation with African peoples."

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, published a cartoon today depicting Tshombe as a tail-wagging African licking the boots of Germany and Italy. The premier is seeking financial aid in West Germany after visiting Italy.

Soviet propaganda has persistently assailed Tshombe as a lackey of the United States and Belgium.

The Congolese legation was one of four attacked Nov. 28 by a mob of Asian and African students protesting the U.S.-Belgian action to rescue hostages from the Congolese rebels. The mob broke windows, and two students climbed in a window and started ransacking an office. Soviet policemen threw them out.

Western Beaver Choir Event Set

The annual Christmas concert of the Senior Choir of Western Beaver High School will be held Thursday night at 8 at the school in Industry.

About 95 students will participate and a feature will be the singing of the "not too well" known Christmas carols.

Leo E. Curto is vocal and instrumental director. Lois Myers and Terry Black are pianists.

Ex-Warden Dies

WASHINGTON'S CROSSING, N.J. (AP) — Mark O. Kimberling, 78, who as warden of the state prison at Trenton, N.J., executed Bruno Richard Hauptmann in 1936 for the kidnap-slaying of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., died Tuesday at his home after long illness. Kimberling later was New Jersey state police superintendent.

People In News

John P. Elsbach, a Los Angeles investor, has made his $250,000 home available to Princess Radziwill.

Mrs. Kennedy is expected to accompany her sister from New York City.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson turned White House guide when a fellow Texan came to call.

The President escorted Oveta Culp Hobby, president of the Houston Post, to the west lobby Tuesday to show her a painting by the American artist, Fredric Remington. It is on loan from the Museum of Fine Arts in Houston.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Zsa Zsa Gabor's claim against the city of Los Angeles for $100,000 has been rejected by the City Council.

The actress filed the claim on the ground that a municipal crew completed demolition of her home after it was damaged in the disastrous fire that swept the fashionable Bel-Air district in 1961.

The Detroit Tigers will play 39 night games at home in 1965.

By HAL HUMPHREY

Alice Finds New Home—Without Toothpaste

Until very recently Alice Pearace couldn't walk down a street anywhere in America without some clown's accosting her and yelling, "Did you brush your teeth?" The other day, however, a kid spotted her in a restaurant and shouted, "There's a bewitched!"

Alice felt good about this. She was getting tired of that other salutation. For nearly three years the dimunitive Alice and her hide-away chin have been seen on TV as she tries to harass a small boy named Chester into brushing his teeth.

Hal Humphrey

IN ONE OF THESE commercial dramas she catches him eating a big hunk of cake, and in another she chases him to the school bus with the inevitable question.

"I had no idea," says Alice, "that the toothpaste people would run those for so long. It's too long. I leave the room myself now when they come on."

Last fall Alice got a call from Bill Asher, director of "Bewitched" and also the husband of Liz Montgomery who stars in the series. He wanted Alice to play a kooky neighbor who realized something was fishy with the "Bewitched" Liz, but couldn't figure what.

"I got the part, along with George Tobias, who plays my husband, and we'll be in seven of the next 13 episodes. I didn't even have to audition," says Alice. The show appears Thursday at 9 p.m. on Channel 5.

LIKE HER FRIEND, Imogene Coca, Alice has a comedy technique so distinctive that directors and producers refer to "Alice Pearce" types.

"It doesn't do any good sometimes," says Alice. "I remember going to read for a part, and when the script was passed around to about 10 of us in the waiting room we noticed it described the character as "an Alice Pearce type.'

"Well, the other girls said, 'Why are we wasting our time? Alice is here.' They waited, though, and it's a good thing they did. I read, but didn't get the part."

Since her career began in the theater at age 8, Alice probably is callousad to such frustrations by now, and even kids about her looks.

"DURING THE WAR Imogene Coca and I organized a unit of five or six gals so we could entertain at Army camps and hospitals around New York," Alice recalls, "and we enjoyed it, but I don't think we pleased the boys.

"At one camp they arrested the men and made them come to our show. Another time we were walking down a hospital hall to the auditorium and this big soldier in a bathrobe saw Imogene first and kind of mumbled to himself, 'If they look like you, I'm going back to bed.'

"When I came trailing along a few yards later, he said to me, "They do look like her, and I am going back to bed.' "

THE MAN FROM the toothpaste company was in Hollywood last week to get Alice for another teeth-brushing drama, but Alice turned him down—despite grossing around $8,000 in residuals for the first two.

"I decided that if the first two were good enough to run that long, they should pay me more money. I wanted double the residuals each time the commercial ran, but they said no, and I must say I'm glad," Alice adds.

28 Attend Christmas Party For Salineville Civic Group

Twenty-eight attend a Christmas party of the Salineville Ladies Civic Club Tuesday night at the Salineville School cafeteria.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Mable O'Donnell and Miss Nelle Toban. A gift exchange was held, and Mrs. Joyce Leek was in charge of the program which included carols. Misses Sue and Jeannie Earl sang.

Mrs. Blanche Baker and Mrs. Nina Melhorn were in charge of decorations. Lunch was served by the officers and Mrs. Margaret McNichol. Mrs. Bea Hazlett, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be held Jan. 19.

The annual Christmas party for children of St. Patrick's Catholic Church will be held Saturday morning following the 10 a.m. instructions at the Parish Hall.

Mrs. Agnes Rutkowski is visiting at Cleveland.

Miss Rita Mae Hanley of Cleveland visited her father, John Hanley, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gruszecki of Hammondsville and Mrs. Helen Gruszecki and daughter and son of Hanoverton R.D. visited here Sunday.

Tony Brandonisio of North St. has returned from Rochester General Hospital, where he was a patient with a back ailment.

Continuance Set In Milk Driver's City Court Trial

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Dec. 29 in a scheduled trial for William Bess of Mingo Junction, a milk truck driver accused of lack of a so - called service inspection permit required by the City Code.

The continuance was granted at the request of Miss Esther Pinsky, a Bellaire attorney who represents Bess. Cited Nov. 20 on an affidavit signed by Gene J. Smith, Health Board sanitary inspector, Bess had been due for a hearing today. He has posted a $57.50 appearance bond.

Charles Watson of Lisbon St. Ext., driver of a Seal - Test Dairy truck, was cited the same day on an identical charge. He is represented by Atty. Donald D. Shay. No date has been set for Watson's hearing.

The affidavits allege that the men "did offer for sale and delivery milk and milk products in the city of East Liverpool without first having obtained a service inspection permit as required by Section 38 of the City Code. . ."

Lisbon Area Man Fined And Jailed

LISBON — John C. Hippely, 58, of R.D. 4 was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail Monday by County Judge James L. MacDonald for driving while intoxicated.

In other State Highway Patrol citations, four other drivers were fined, one was given a suspended fine and another forfeited bond. Fined were:

Lloyd E. Mills, 20, of R. D. 3, $10 and costs for driving left of center.

Kenneth M. Mathers, 32, of Minerva R. D. 1, received a suspended $10 fine for failure to yield half of road to oncoming traffic and Edward R. Warner, 18, of Warren, forfeited $15 for speeding.

2-Car Crash Leaves 1 Dead And 2 Injured

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — One person is dead and two others injured as a result of a two-car crash east of Miamisburg in Montgomery County.

Fatally injured in the accident late Tuesday was Alfred E. Mayer, 64, of Miamisburg, driver of one car. His passenger, 69-year-old Elmer Bravard of near Miamisburg, was seriously injured. Mrs. Rhea Carter, 39, of Dayton, driver of the second car, also was hurt. Her condition was reported satisfactory.

Youth Of Kensington Area Cited In Wreck

An 18-year-old Kensington area youth was cited after his car veered off a curve of Route 644 near Salineville Tuesday and struck a pile of stones.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Dewey Joseph May of Kensington R.D. 1 was headed north in a 1960 sedan when his car left the road on a curve about a third of a mile north of Salineville at 12:30 p.m. There was extensive damage to the auto. He was charged with speeding.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average 7-9 degrees below normal Thursday until Tuesday. Representative normal highs and lows are Cleveland 36-22, Columbus 28-23 and Cincinnati 42-27. Cold Thursday and Friday, warming Saturday but turning cold again Sunday with little change thereafter. Precipitation will average one-half to one-fourth of an inch melted as almost daily snow flurries and more general snow late Thursday and Thursday night and again about Sunday.

Falls Injure Area Women

A New Cumberland area woman and a Gardendale woman were in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered in falls Tuesday. Six other area residents were treated after mishaps and released.

Mrs. Margaret Stephens of New Cumberland R.D. 2 suffered a fractured knee in a fall at home.

Darla Bennett, 22, daughter of Frank Bennett of Gardendale Ave., received injuries of the head, neck and lower back in a fall down cellar steps at home last night.

Mrs. Barbara Conley, 21, of 117 Pennsylvania Ave., Chester, suffered lacerations of the fingers of the right hand.

Leona Mae Hudson, 5, daughter of Donald Hudson of Wellsville R. D. 1, received a nose injury in a fall against a coffee table.

Anthony Curtis, 9, son of Stanley Curtis of Lisbon St., was treated for a toe injury received at play.

Firemen Slate Children's Treat

Some 300 Calcutta-area children are expected to attend the annual Christmas party sponsored by the Calcutta volunteer fire department Friday night at the fire station.

Plans for the party along with arrangements for decorating the tree and station were made at a meeting of the department Monday night.

The party will get under way at 8 p.m. with Santa Claus scheduled to arrive about 8:30 to distribute treats. Santa sent word to firemen that the treats will be given only to those children attending the party.

Pupils from the Larry Myers Dance Studio will present entertainment and there will be refreshments for adults.

Chester Postmaster Urges Card Mailings

An appeal for residents to mail Christmas cards tonight or Thursday to insure delivery was issued by Chester Postmaster Robert Edwards.

Mail volume is running about 5 per cent below last year's volume he said, with the highest volume so far occurring last Friday and Saturday.

So far, 60,000 stamps have been purchased at the Chester office.

Postmaster Edwards urged mailing of cards and packages as soon as possible to guarantee delivery before Christmas, and asked mailers to include ZIP code numbers to speed handling.

Crews At Wellsville Patch Street Holes

Taking advantage of the break in the weather, Wellsville street crews today were applying cold-mix patching to chuckholes.

Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare said a load of the patching material was used this afternoon.

The street sweeper also was put back into operation today. Some streets also were cleaned Monday.

The sweeper will be utilized during the winter, when possible, in order to cut down on the accumulation of dirt and make the spring cleanup easier, the director said.

Italian Satellite In Orbit, Launched From U.S. Base

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Italian spacecraft dubbed San Marcos I and stamped "Launched in the U.S.A." is whirling around the earth every 95 minutes.

Italians are jubilant over the success of the 254-pound satellite which was rocketed into orbit by an Italian crew late Tuesday from the U.S. space agency's station at Wallops Island, Va.

With the space achievement, Italy becomes the third nation to orbit a satellite. Only the United States and the Soviet Union had orbited space vehicles previously.

"Now Italy has joined a select group of nations that have placed a satellite into orbit," said Sergio Fenoaltea, Italian ambassador to the United States. He thanked the United States for its assistance.

Deputy space administrator Dr. Hugh L. Dryden was the top U.S. representative present.

For the crew of 75 Italians, the successful launching capped an effort of more than two years, during which they had trained at various U.S. bases under an agreement between the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Italian Space Commission.

Under the terms of the agreement between NASA and the Italian commission, "no exchange of funds" was involved. Each country paid for the equipment it provided.

The 254-pound payload was actually a satellite within a satellite, with a light spherical shell covering a heavy metal sphere. Its mission is to study the ionosphere and measure atmospheric density at high altitudes.

Industry Church Guild Plans Public Card Party Jan. 13

Plans for a public card party Jan. 13 were completed at a meeting of the St. Christine Guild Monday night at the St. Christine Catholic Church hall at Industry.

Mrs. Joseph Benek will be in charge of tickets, Mrs. Amos Walker and Mrs. Paul Botte, prizes, and Mrs. Charles Karolewski and Mrs. Mike Rosepiler, kitchen.

Mrs. John Mehalik, president, announced Atty. Charles Barrickman of Industry will speak on wills at the next meeting Jan. 11. The Executive Board will meet Jan. 5.

Mrs. Paul Schake, chairman of Catholic charities, reported four boxes of used clothing have been shipped for distribution.

Grabbag gifts were exchanged. Carol singing was led by Mrs. Benek.

Mrs. Ned Newtz reported on a coverdish dinner Christmas social slated Sunday at 4:30 p.m. at the church hall.

A gift was presented Fr. Adelbert Williams, pastor.

Two hundred attended the annual Christmas party of the Industry volunteer firemen and auxiliary Sunday night at the fire station.

Santa Claus distributed treats and a gift exchange was held for children. Prizes were awarded Neal Daniels, Mrs. Noah Lester, Don Doyle and Mrs. Alan Craft.

Movies of previous parties were screened, along with cartoons. The auxiliary will meet Jan. 12.

Oberlin People To Help Rebuild Bombed Church

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP) — They're calling it "Carpenters for Christmas" and the plan is to help rebuild a bombed out church so Negroes in Ripley, Miss., will have a shelter to worship the Christ child.

About 30 students, teachers and townspeople, mostly from Oberlin, will leave here Saturday for Ripley, where the Antioch Missionary Church was bombed and burned Oct. 30 following a Freedom Democratic Party civil rights rally.

More than 1,300 Oberlin College students will skip dinner today and chip in the $500 saved to help finance the project, which is led by the Oberlin Action for Civil Rights group. It's an independent organization chartered by Oberlin College.

Final goal for fund-raising is $10,000 and Oberlin church congregations gave Thanksgiving Day offerings to the fund. It now stands at about $1,500.

Johnson Picks Up Precedent From Political Idol – FDR

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson is picking up precedent from his political idol and tutor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, in the fields of official oratory and diplomatic niceties.

The White House announced Tuesday that:

—Johnson will deliver a nighttime address to Congress — and the people — on the State of the Union on Jan. 4 rather than the usual noontime report. Not since Roosevelt delivered a State-of-the-Union address at 9 p.m. on Jan. 3, 1936 — Johnson picked the same hour -- has one been presented at night.

—From now on new ambassadors to the United States will be received in the executive mansion proper, instead of the presidential office in the west wing, to present their credentials. Eight of them did so Tuesday in the Blue Room. Roosevelt received envoys in the same room.

When Johnson speaks on the night of Jan. 4, he will be addressing the first session of the 89th Congress — an address that will be carried by television and radio networks.

It was the second session of the 74th Congress that Roosevelt addressed on that January night 29 years ago. His speech, broadcast by national radio networks, was a ringing defense of the New Deal and its policies and a stinging attack on its opponents. He declared "I recommend to Congress that we advance, that we do not retreat."

He painted a gloomy picture of world affairs and said he considered world peace jeopardized by nations with autocratic governments fostering ill will. He warned of "a situation which has in it many of the elements that lead to the tragedy of general war."

Roosevelt was greeted with roars of applause when he entered the House chamber on the arm of his son, James. The House had a solemn appearance that night, its only color provided by the evening gowns and wraps worn by some of the women in the audience. Mrs. Roosevelt sat in the House gallery with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Boettiger.

Outside, Capitol police had a bit of trouble keeping the enthusiastic crowd in order. Many without tickets attempted to crash the gate in an effort to hear the president.

Two Suits For $4.1 Million Cite Drug Firm And Doctor

CLEVELAND (AP)—A total of $4,100,000 is sought in two suits filed in common pleas court here against a drug firm which manufactured the ill-fated tranquilizer Thalidomide and a Cincinnati doctor who allegedly prescribed the drug.

The parents of two malformed babies accuse the doctor in the suits filed Tuesday of cooperating with the drug firm in publishing fictitious statistics which were instrumental in putting Thalidomide in the hands of U. S. doctors.

The defendants are Richardson-Merrell, Inc., of New York City, manufacturer and distributor of the German-invented drug for the United States and Canada, and Dr. Ray O. Nulsen, a Cincinnati obstetrician.

Attorney Craig Spangenberg filed the suits — each seeking $2,050,000—on behalf of Gwenn Marie Reichman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Reichman, and Lori Ruberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ruberg, both of Cincinnati. The 2-year-old girls were born with malformed arms and legs, which the suits claim resulted from Thalidomide pills Dr. Nulsen prescribed for their mothers during pregnancy.

Thalidomide was withdrawn from use last year after a flood of malformed babies was attributed to the drug.

The petitions alleged that Richardson-Merrell engaged Dr. Nulsen to conduct a study of the effects of Thalidomide and that he tried the pills on some patients, but instead of personally observing the effect of the drug he merely relayed the patients' reports to the drug firm.

The plaintiffs also charge that Richardson-Merrell had an article written on the effect of the drug on pregnant women in which it allegedly "invented fictitious statistics concerning the number of patients in various age groups who received the drug" and that "Dr. Nulsen agreed to sign the article as though it were his own."

Snow Shoveling Fatal

County Board Sess Help In Education Act

LISBON — The Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night discussed the expanded Title III program of the National Defense Education Act and indicated it might be of help in setting up school libraries and purchasing new books.

State and federal governments pay 50 per cent of the costs in the program, which previously was geared towards science but now includes aid in everything except physical education and fine arts.

Supt. James L. McBride discussed the valuation of Grades 1-8 in recent workshops held throughout the county. He said an overwhelming number of teachers asked that these workshops be continued next year on each grade level.

The Title III program also will sponsor workshops and it is hoped that a social and mathematics workshop can be held next fall.

Supt. McBride reported on his recent visit to new type school set up at the former Air Force Base at Youngstown Airport in which students who dropped out of school and were unable to find work because they had no skilled background are trained in 19 different vocations.

Mrs. Freeman Strabley gave a report on the Ohio School Boards Association meeting she attended in Columbus Nov. 10-12.

The board joined the Ohio school boards association for 1965, at a cost of $100, and paid for the bond which covers Supt. McBride as clerk of the county board.

Fred Lohman, county school attendance officer, reported he made 42 school and 18 home visits and traveled 703 miles. He also attended two court cases during the month.

A tentative date of Jan. 19 was set for a joint meeting of the county, Beaver, Fairfield-Waterford, Southern and United Local boards. It will begin at 8:30 p. m. and will be held possibly at one of the schools. No executive heads will be invited.

Bills of $176.19 were ordered paid. The reorganization meeting of the board will be held Jan. 16 at 8:30 p. m. in the county school offices.

Continued Prayer, Bible Reading Urged

Citing a recent poll favoring its stand, the Columbiana County Board of Education is urging continued use of the Bible and prayers in the county's classrooms. The Board Tuesday night at Lisbon adopted the following resolution:

"Be it resolved that the county board sincerely recommends to each local board that it adopt a policy of encouraging the continued use of the Bible and prayer in the classrooms and assembly halls of our schools. The board recommends that the teachers and students be encouraged to do this, not required. It also recommends continued use of the traditional Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and baccalaureate programs. A recent poll by the county office shows that an overwhelming percentage of our people favor this action."

City And Wellsville Drivers Draw Fines

A city motorist and one from Wellsville were fined at hearings Tuesday night before Jefferson County. Judge Augustus Evans Jr. of Toronto.

George Butler of East Liverpool, R.D. 2 was fined $25 and costs for speeding and Anne L. Adams, 502 13th St., Wellsville, $25 and costs for driving alone on a temporary permit.

Three area motorists fined at a previous court session were Roman J. Schiff of East Liverpool, $10 and costs for left of center; James Fusco, 500 13th St., Wellsville, $20 and costs for speeding, and Samuel Abdalla of Stratton, $10 and costs for speeding.

Talks Pushed To Nip Sunday Dock Walkout

NEW YORK (AP)—Negotiators working to avoid a possible Maine-to-Texas dock strike Sunday say they could reach agreement today on a long-sought contract for 60,000 longshoremen.

After four and a half hours of bargaining Tuesday night, negotiators said the issues "have been narrowed and we see the possibility of a settlement tomorrow."

New York faces a possible strike at 8 p.m. Sunday when an 80-day Taft-Hartley injunction expires. Since the New York agreement customarily sets the pattern for all eastern and gulf ports, failure to reach agreement could tie up ports from Maine to Texas.

STAMPED IMPRESSION. Instead of collecting stamps for albums, Giuseppe Albergamo of Rome uses them to create pictures. He cuts the stamps into fragments and glues them, mosaic-style, on canvas.

Audience Participation Set For Stanton Local Concert

HAMMONDSVILLE — The audience will be invited to participate in one part of the annual Christmas concert of the vocal music department of Stanton Local School District Friday night at 8 at the high school auditorium.

The audience will be asked to join with the choir in the singing of "Deck the Hall," "Silver Bells" and "Joy to the World" near the end of the program.

Ray Lautzenheiser is director.

Opening selections of the Senior Choir will be "O Come All Ye Faithful," "In a Stable Manger," with a solo by Edward Rosenlieb, "Go to Sleep, Holy Child" and "Sing Alleluia." Carol Mihalik is accompanist.

The Girls' Glee Club will sing "Ring Christmas Bells," "Christmas Song", and "The Holly and the Ivy."

The Triple-Trio will sing "Little Donkey," "Christmas Prayer" and "Winter Wonderland."

Brenda Burton is the accompanist for the Junior Choir. Selections include "Silent Night," with Darlene Furbee as accompanist, "Seven Joys of Mary," with Miss Burton playing, "Little Gray Donkey," with a solo by Thomas Holland and Marsha Sprouse as accompanist, "Mister Santa," with Vicki Rosenlieb as soloist, and "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," with a solo by Roderick Reynolds.

The Boys' Eight group will sing "Ol' Gray Robe" and "My Lord, What a Mornin'."

The Mixed Ensemble will give "Gloria! Sing Gloria!"

Connie Hogue will be the accompanist for "Sleep Little One" by the Senior Choir.

The Senior Choir will close the program with "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

Northwest Hit By Big Snow, Deadly Wind

By The Associated Press

A mammoth snowstorm packing deadly winds churned through the Northwest today, driving temperatures far below zero in some areas and closing schools and roads.

The powerful storm — described by the Weather Bureau as almost unprecedented for late autumn — covered the entire northwestern quarter of the nation.

A Weather Bureau meteorologist in Helena, Mont., said "venturing out of doors is considered dangerous unless a person is thoroughly prepared."

Schools were closed in Wyoming, Montana, Idaho and Washington State.

Visibility was cut to zero in blowing snow in some areas.

Winds of more than 80 m.p.h. toppled a brick wall in a residential section of Cheyenne, Wyo. The snowfall in Wyoming ranged from 6 to 12 inches, but more snow was falling and piled into deep drifts by strong winds. At Powell, on the storm's fringe, the temperature dropped from 27 above zero to 12 below in a matter of minutes.

New Mexico was hit by 72 m.p.h. winds, shifting snow into drifts.

Temperatures dropped to -60 over Alaska. Even the usually moderate Alaskan Panhandle reported sub-zero readings.

60 At Scouts Yule Event

Prayers were given by the Rev. Arthur Williams.

Fourteen other awards were presented to nine boys. Miniature pins were given their mothers.

Past activities of the troop were reviewed by Norman Sctt, scoutmaster. Future events were discussed. Three patrols presented skits. Curtis Havens presented a gift certificate to Scott from the troop.

Refreshments were served by the mothers. Scott presented each boy a pen. A bake sale is planned Jan. 23.

Salem Slates Test On Vote Board Ruling

SALEM — City Solicitor Thomas Coe told Council Tuesday night he will file an action in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon this week challenging a ruling by the County Election Board that apparently invalidated an ordinance enacted Dec. 1 to realign the boundaries of all four wards in the city.

Coe advised Council he will file a petition asking for a declatory judgment in the case and seeking to establish the validity of the legislation. He called the Election Board's ruling last week "premature," asserting that the ordinance would not become law until Jan. 1 under any circumstances.

Generally, the realignment ordinance reduces the 12 of the First and Fourth wards by transferring precincts to the Second and Third.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, board clerk, said the measure was ruled invalid because an ordinance almost identical to it was knocked out four years ago in a decision by Prosecutor G. William Brokaw.

In 1960 Brokaw ruled a ward realignment ordinance illegal because it was not passed within the three - month period following a federal census, as required by the Ohio Revised Code. So the new ordinance is invalid for the same reason, as the prosecutor's ruling still stands, O'Hanlon said.

The new measure was enacted by Council Nov. 18. However, Mayor Dean B. Cranmer vetoed the legislation on Nov. 24. Council overrode the mayor's veto Dec. 1 by a 5-2 vote along party lines.

The Election Board ruled on the ordinance after Democratic Councilmen Harold Astry and Albert Lesch filed petitions for re-election.

Under the ordinance, both men would be in the so-called Southwest Ward. That would force them to run against each other in the May primaries if one of them did not pull out to run for an at-large seat.

Joseph Hutchinson Talks

Hospital Administration Discussed For Rotarians

"The job of administering a community hospital is becoming increasingly more complex, both externally and internally," Joseph Hutchinson, assistant administrator of City Hospital, told the Rotary Club Tuesday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

A native of Rochester, Pa., he joined the hospital in June.

Five reasons were cited by Hutchinson in explaining that the problems are probably the most difficult administrative tasks faced by any executive. The reasons are:

Hospitals do not operate for profit, but to provide service;

A hospital is not owned in the usual manner;

By nature, hospitals cannot have a chain of command like industries and businesses;

Because of the dozens of skills needed, they are difficult to staff, and Hospitals must operate around-the-clock for seven days a week.

The hospital administrator's role is changing as hospitals have changed from workshops for physicians to health centers for communities, he pointed out.

In early years, hospital administration was very informal and administrators had little training.

Today more than a dozen colleges offer master's degrees in hospital administration and Hutchinson said he could visualize the time within a few years when all hospital administrators are required to have degrees.

"Today's administrator must mobilize the skills of divergent groups of professional, semi-professional and non - professional personnel to provide service for patients. The ultimate goal of any hospital is to provide good patient care," he declared.

The interdependence of the various groups must be co-ordinated so the hospital can function effectively.

The hospital administrator's role has been changing as the hospitals have changed from workshops for physicians to health centers for communities, Hutchinson pointed out.

The administrator must meet the requirements of the trustees, the physicians and specialists, and the families of patients. In addition, he must keep in mind financial solvency and co-ordinate maintenance, education and research and stay abreast of specialized equipment which will help the hospital operate more efficiently.

The around - the - clock operation complicates the personnel problem and is the chief reason hospitals have twice as many employes as patients. And that factor adds to the cost, which accounts for about 60 per cent of hospital budgets, he concluded.

Hutchinson was introduced by Dr. J. W. Schoolnic, program chairman. Alvin T. Babb, president, presided.

Officers List 2 Minor City Car Mishaps

Two minor traffic mishaps were listed in East Liverpool Tuesday afternoon, but no one was injured, police said.

A collision at Lincoln Ave. and E. 8th St. at 3:15 damaged a 1963 two - door sedan driven by Nessie D. Davis, 36, of Highland Colony and a 1960 two-door sedan operated by Kathryn E. Wilson, 28, of 1320 Riverview St., officers said.

The mishap damaged the right front fender of the Davis car and the right side of the Wilson auto.

The Davis car was moving east on E. 8th and the Wilson car was traveling south on Lincoln Ave., officers said. The Riverview St. woman said she swerved in an unsuccessful attempt to miss the other auto when it pulled onto Lincoln Ave.

Ellsworth Moore, 41, of 231 25th St., Wellsville, told police the left rear door of his 1959 two - door sedan was damaged in a collision with an unidentified car at Jackson St. and W. Church Ln.

Moore told police he was turning into W. Church and the other auto was halted, waiting for another vehicle to park. The unidentified car drifted backward and hit Moore's auto, but the driver then left the scene without offering any information, Moore told police.

U.S. Policeman Killed In Panama Accident

PANAMA (AP)—A young U. S. Canal Zone policeman whose parents live in Akron, Ohio, has been killed in an accident here.

Jennings W. Rogers, 27, was crushed Tuesday when an automobile he was helping repair slipped off a jack. Survivors include the widow, two children, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers of Akron.

Mentor Council Votes To Fire City Manager

Reasons for the dismissal were not disclosed. Mayor Robert P. Brewer said the firing "was not hasty, nor ill-conceived, but deliberate and studied." Moon, 33, had been city manager since February, 1962.

18th Annual Event

Newell Christmas Sing Set Sunday Afternoon

The Newell Women's Club will hold its 18th annual Community Christmas Sing Sunday afternoon at 4 at the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. John Cox of the First Christian Church will give the invocation and the Rev. Wilbur Beaver of the Glendale Church of the Nazarene will read the Christmas story. The Rev. Ralph Hedrick will offer the benediction.

Mrs. Alvin Stevens will sing a solo, "O Holy Night."

The First Methodist choir will sing "And There Were Shepherds" and "My Christmas Prayer."

The committee includes Mrs. Norman Cox, Mrs. John Addis, Mrs. Archie Coen and Mrs. Mike Fontana.

The club held a Christmas smorgasbord Monday night at the Newell American Legion.

The tables were set with white cloths centered with Christmas candles and miniature Santas were the favors. Devotions were led by Mrs. Delmar Jividen.

Patty Kaminski was in charge of make-up. A group of students led the club in singing Christmas carols.

Mrs. Ronald Eckleberry, president, welcomed two guests, Mrs. Clyde Cozzens, an honorary member, and Miss Lucille Shu, a native of Formosa, who is visiting Mrs. Albert Logston.

Mrs. Eckleberry named Mrs. Marilyn Jennings and Mrs. Delmar Jividen to a committee to purchase gifts for Hancock County Old Folks Home at Pughtown for Christmas.

A dessert hour followed with the social committee in charge with Mrs. Leonard Copestick and Mrs. John Addis co-chairman.

The club will meet Jan. 11.

Heart Attack Fatal

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Dr. Paul H. Hoch, 62, New York state commissioner of mental hygiene and an authority on mental health, died Tuesday night of a heart attack.

Council O.K. Given Chester Walk Change

Relocation of a 5th St. sidewalk at the site of a planned new Chester drugstore was approved by Council at a brief meeting Tuesday night.

George Manolakis, owner of the Citizens Drugstore, 448 Carolina Ave., outlined plans for construction of a one - story, brick pharmacy at Carolina Ave. and 5th St., site of the former Kirschler Restaurant, which burned three years ago.

Manolakis asked permission to provide 12 spaces for diagonal parking on 5th St., utilizing a 4-foot wide section of the present sidewalk area. He said he would give a corresponding section of his property to the city for sidewalk space.

He explained seven cars could park along the curb under the present curb arrangement, while 12 could park with diagonal parking. Council approved the plan for relocation of the walk.

Council also discussed purchase of a used street grader, and Councilman Percy Willison was requested to obtain estimates and report at the next meeting Jan. 5.

Bills totaling $3,684 were paid. Receipts totaled $257, Clerk Roy Cashdollar reported.

United States Presidents are not immune to arrest. President Ulysses S. Grant, charged with speeding in his carriage, forfeited $20 bond.

High School Music Groups To Perform In Yule Concert

The vocal and instrumental departments of East Liverpool High School will combine for an annual Christmas concert Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Westgate auditorium.

Doors will open at 7:30 p. m. There will be no admission charge.

The Blue Concert Band directed by Vincent Maola will play the "Messiah" selection by Handel and "Christmas Rhapsody."

Robert Shankovich will direct the Concert Choir in "How Shall I Fitly Meet Thee" from the Christmas oratorio by Bach.

It will sing some traditional carols as well as "Sleigh Ride" by Anderson and a calypso, "Mary's Little Boy Chile."

The Sophomore Choir's selections will be " 'Twas the Night Before Christmas" and "Snow, Snow, Beautiful Snow."

The Girls' Choir will sing "Christmas Eve" by Hageman, "Do You Hear What I Hear," arranged by Simeone, and a traditional carol.

Ensembles and soloists also will be presented.

Portions of the program will be repeated for the school's Christmas assembly Friday at 11 a. m. in Memorial Auditorium.

West Point PTA Event Draws 100

Opening devotions were led by the Rev. Frank Hare. A report of the PTA forum at Kent State University last October was given by Mrs. Doyle Gilkinson and Mrs. Francis Grier.

"Christmas In Other Lands" was the program theme of group singing and readings presented by the children under the direction of Mrs. Hare.

Third grade mothers, with Mrs. Regina Bellomy as chairman, were hostesses. Mrs. John Steffen's class won the attendance banner.

The school Christmas party, sponsored by the Mothers Club, will be Dec. 23.

The next meeting of the PTA will be held Jan. 11 and that of the club Feb. 10 with Mrs. Naomi Sims.

Elkton School Class Will Hold Yule Party

LISBON — The Retarded Children's School at Elkton will hold its annual Christmas program Friday at 7:30 p. m. and all 66 students will take part.

Parents, friends and public may attend.

Crops Clinic Slated Jan. 6

LISBON — Columbiana - Mahoning County farmers interested in high crop yields and low production costs will find some answers in a crop production clinic to be held Jan. 6 at the Salem Christian Church, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Four agronomists of the Ohio Co-operative Extension Service will discuss approved crop production practices for this area. The speakers are Dr. George Gist, Dr. Lewis C. Saboe, Dr. Orlo Musgrave and Dr. Gordon J. Ryder.

The clinic, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., is being sponsored by the OCES and Columbiana-Mahoning agronomy committees.

In the forenoon program, Gist will discuss forage production, dealing specifically with varieties, seeding methods and mixtures, management practices, and forage systems. Musgrave will report on lime and fertilizer materials, rates and methods of application, soil testing and plant analysis.

In the afternoon, Saboe will speak on small grain and soybean production, with emphasis on varieties, cultural practices and weed control. Ryder will discuss corn production, including recommended hybrids, plant populations, weed control, cultural practices and water management.

A noon luncheon will offer farmers an opportunity to visit with speakers and study exhibits. The exhibits will contain subject matter relating to crop production and the day's discussions.

The event is the program for the annual Soils and Crops Institute, Myers said.

Yule Stocking Given To Children Of Clinic

Christmas stockings filled with candy were given to the children of the Speech and Hearing Clinic Saturday morning when the Quota Club entertained with a party at Westgate School. The room was decorated in a Yuletide theme.

Refreshments were served 65 children and parents by Miss Phyllis Crook, Mrs. Edna Jones and Mrs. Marie Hays, assisted by high school students, Miss Janice Manypenny and Miss Carol Rodenhausen.

Oak Glen Smothers Weirton, 77-58, For 2nd Victory

FLYING THROUGH the air with the greatest of ease is Oak Glen's Mike Clutter (20) shown towards the basket as he scored and was fouled on this play as a Weirton defender drops an arm over Clutter's shoulder. At left is Oak Glen's Dennis Carnes (24). The action took place in the second quarter of last night's game at Oak Glen.

Clutter Nets 22 Points In First Over Riders

Before the contest was over, Oak Glen had turned its first victory over Weirton, into a rout and wound up with a 77-58 decision Tuesday night before some 800 fans at the Oak Glen court.

Moving out to a 20-14 lead, the Golden Bears were never in trouble after the first quarter and cruised to a 43-27 advantage at halftime. After three periods the inexperienced Weirton five trailed, 61-32.

The victory was the second in three starts for Coach Bob Starkey's team which will rest over the holidays not returning to action until Jan. 5 at Weirton Madonna.

The shooting of guard Mike Clutter in the first half, sent Oak Glen to its early advantage The 5-11 cager pumped in one long shot after another and wound up with 18 points in the first half then added four more in the second half.

One of Clutter's set shots came from near midcourt and fell through as the buzzer sounded ending the first quarter.

THREE other Oak Glen starters finished in the double figures with Dennis Carnes returning to action with a 17-point performance. John Brand found the range for 13 points and did his share of rebounding while Dave Wagner added 10 markers.

WEIRTON, in the process of a rebuilding year, was paced by Dan Foley, the only holdover from last year's crack Weir High team. Foley took game honors with 23 points. Weirton shot 36 per cent making 18 of 50 attempts.

In the preliminary battle, Weirton nipped Oak Glen's reserves, 38-35. Hutton paced Weirton with 13 points while Rayburn tossed in nine to lead Oak Glen.

But What About Yanks, CBS?

Baseball Signs TV Pact Hitting Over $12 Million

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball has stuck its finger in the lucrative television pie for the first time on a multi-club basis, pulling out a $12.2-million plum but leaving one juicy question still unresolved:

What about the New York Yankees and CBS?

The speculation arose Tuesday following baseball's announcement that it had sold its first regular - season package, giving the American Broadcasting Co. the right to telecast nationally 25 Saturday and two holiday games in both the 1965 and 1966 seasons.

The money from the new undertaking, named the Saturday Spectacular, will be divided equally among the teams, bringing the 18 clubs participating in the venture about $300,000 a year in addition to revenue from local telecasts.

Two clubs with previous commitments — the Philadelphia Phillies and the CBS-owned Yankees — are not participants.

The Phillies are expected to join before the start of the season and it is hoped the Yankees will join the rest of baseball for the 1966 season.

During the 1965 season the Yankees will be in direct competition with the other 18 clubs, 19 if the Phillies iron out their local sponsorship problem.

The Yankees, purchased last year by CBS, have a contract with the network that has been in existence for about 10 years, but runs out after the 1965 season. The past season the Yankees televised 22 home games on a national basis via CBS, receiving $550,000. They are expected to do the same in 1965.

John Fetzer, owner of the Detroit Tigers and one of the prime movers in the package arrangement with ABC, admitted the Yankees participation would have made the transaction more attractive and said:

"We hope the Yankees will be included in 1966. But we are unable to determine that at the present time."

The Yankees said much the same through General Manager Ralph Houk.

"We have not committed ourselves one way or the other," he pointed out. "Our contract for this year with CBS is so much better than what the others are to get, we would have to study the proposition when we are no longer committed to our present contract."

Under the terms of the contract for the Saturday Spectacular, the clubs will get $5.7 million the first year and $6.5 million the second—equivalent to $300,000 per team the first year and $325,000 the second time around.

One of the main features of the Saturday Spectacular is that there will be no blackout anywhere except in the cities of the two teams playing. The game will be televised into all areas of the country, including cities which have major league teams.

Previously no game was permitted to be televised into an area within a 50-mile radius of a major league city.

Tom Moore, ABC president, said the schedule will be arranged before the start of the season but will be flexible so emphasis can be placed on the pennant races.

Wittenberg's Home Win Mark Ended By Muskies

By The Associated Press

Going into the contest, Wittenberg had won 56 consecutive conference games on its home floor. Its last previous OC loss at home was a 70-69 decision to Marietta back in 1956.

Muskingum served notice early it was a match for the taller defending champions as the Muskies pulled down rebounds time after time, then waited for the better shots. They led 21-18 at the intermission.

The visitors from New Concord were even more impressive after the break as the Tigers got only four rebounds. The winners led for the game in that department 29-13.

Joe Arganbright had 21 points to lead Muskingum scorers while Gabe Kovacs and Bob Logan with 14 apiece shared honors for the Tigers. Muskingum now is 2-2 in the league while Wittenberg slipped to 2-1.

In other action on the 11-game Tuesday night Ohio card, Toledo found the going rough in an intersectional battle at Philadelphia against Villanova. Villanova romped 95-60 although the Rockets' Bob Aston was the game's leading scorer with 22 points.

Two Ohio teams went into their respective games with unblemished records but only one —Steubenville — remained undefeated. The Barons squeezed by the Gannon (Pa.) Golden Knights 65-62 for their fifth victory.

Marietta's Pioneers carried their 4-0 record to Columbus only to have it soiled by Capital which prevailed 84-81 in overtime.

Jets Get 2 Players From Jacksonville

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Columbus Jets of the International League have acquired outfielder Ron Cox and second baseman Jack Damaska from the IL Jacksonville Suns.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, parent Columbus club, announced a four-player deal Tuesday in which the Jets also gave up a couple of players to Jacksonville. Outfielder Ted Savage and pitcher Earl Francis went to the Suns, farm club of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Rabbit Trapper Fined

Larry Blakeley, 20, of Wellsville was fined $15 and costs Monday by County Judge James L. MacDonald at Lisbon for trapping rabbits. He was cited by James Kelly, state game protector.

South Side Is 61-37 Victim

Western Beaver Extends Win Streak To 6 In Row

Western Beaver continued the longest winning streak in the district by making its six in a row Tuesday night dealing visiting South Side a 61-37 setback.

Off to a slow start in the first quarter when Western showed a 10-7 lead, the Golden Beavers raced out to a 28-15 margin at halftime and held a 42-21 advantage after three periods.

Gary Shreve, 6-1½ cager, led three Beavers into the double figures taking game honors with 19. Ken Brandt added 12 to the attack and Bruce Singleton dropped in 11.

Peden's 16 points topped South Side while Verzella added 10.

Western Beaver shot 40 per cent for the game on 26 of 64 while South Side came up with a 28 per cent mark canning 16 of 57 attempts.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH ROLLED OUT ITS 10,000,000th BARREL OF BEER THIS YEAR!

Never before in history has a single brewer produced ten million barrels of beer in one year. To Anheuser-Busch, of course, this industry record is a tremendous source of satisfaction.

But this record is far more than that. It is a clear indication of the successful cooperation of American management and labor... of the continued growth of America's prosperity... of the ability of good products to win ever-increasing acceptance in the marketplace.

Anheuser-Busch beer is produced for enjoyment and refreshment. But ten million barrels of beer produces other things: employment for thousands of people who work in our breweries... income for farmers and for folks who work in the paper, metal, plastic, and glass industries... and funds for federal and state taxes to improve schools, build roads and fight poverty.

This year alone, for example, the beers brewed by Anheuser-Busch will provide more than $90 million in federal taxes and more than $45 million in state taxes.

When that ten millionth barrel rolled off the production line, we stopped and drank a toast to the millions of people who enjoy our fine beers. Thanks... ten million of them!

St. John's Falls From Unbeaten

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

College basketball's upper echelon is fast becoming a scrap heap — and the hungry Hawks of St. Joseph's, Pa., are doing their share of the plundering.

The Philadelphia quintet, which ran Davidson out of the Top Ten 10 days ago, knocked off seventh-ranked St. John's of New York 71-56 Thursday night with a stifling zone defense that limited the visiting Redmen to 16 second-half points.

St. John's first loss in four starts left only two nationally ranked teams — No. 3 San Francisco and No. 4 Minnesota — with perfect records.

The Hawks, behind sophomore Matt Goukas Jr., opened the second half with a 13-1 surge that wiped out a 40-39 deficit and put the Redmen behind to stay. Goukas hit for eight points during the rally.

Goukas finished with 17 points, one less than teammate Billy Oakes. Ken McIntyre hit 19 for St. John's.

Villanova, St. Joseph's ambitious Philadelphia neighbor, matched the Hawks' 5-0 mark with a 95-60 romp over Toledo.

Rick Barry scored his first point at 12:09 of the first half but still finished with 39 as Miami of Florida outraced visiting St. Mary's, Calif., 89-77. Barry's 11 field goals and 18 rebounds set Miami career records of 571 and 922, respectively.

Penn State pulled away from Gettysburg with a burst of 10 successive points midway through the second half and whipped the home team 53-39.

Skip Thoren pumped 16 of his 19 points in the first half, triggering Illinois to a 70-56 decision over Wisconsin in the Big Ten conference opener at Madison, Wis.

Haynes Pick As Comeback Player Of '64

NEW YORK (AP) — Abner Haynes, the American Football League's first big name, won a new honor Wednesday when he was named winner of the Come-Back-of-the-Year award of the AFL by an Associated Press panel.

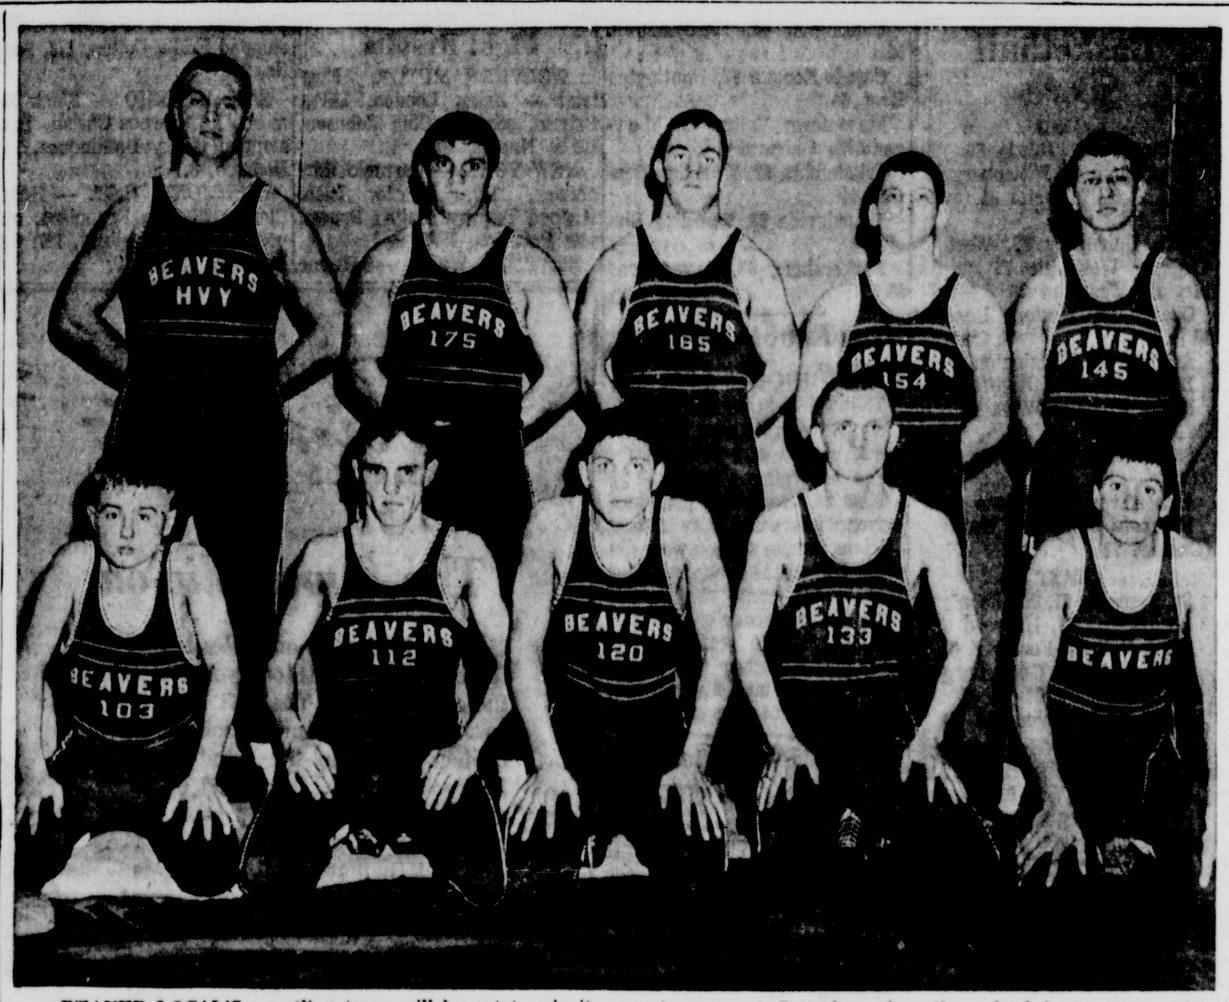

Haynes, 26, started the season with Kansas City as a split end, filling in for the injured Chris Burford. Coach Hank Stram had talked of using him at flanker behind Frank Jackson. Curt McClinton apparently had usurped his old job at running back.

Abner moved into the backfield as soon as Burford was healthy and showed much of his old dash and drive while gaining 652 yards on 124 carries in the first 13 games.

The first day Haynes returned to the backfield the Chiefs were playing the Oakland Raiders. Abner ran 12 times for 196 yards and caught five passes for 117 yards to prove he was back in business.

This was the man who was the league's Player of the Year in 1960 as a rookie when he also was the leading ground gainer and scored 19 touchdowns in regular-season play in 1962.

In the voting of the 24-man committee, three from each league city, Haynes drew seven votes. Glenn Bass, Buffalo split end, and Babe Parilli, Boston's veteran quarterback, each received four votes.

Jim Brown Is Official Rush Leader

Browns Accepting Orders For Tickets

Tickets prices, established by the NFL, are $10, $8 and $6. Applications must be accompanied by a certified check, bank check or bank money order payable to the Cleveland Browns and sent to the Cleveland Browns, Cleveland Stadium, Cleveland 14, Ohio.

A self-addressed stamped envelope also must accompany the order.

Brown won the rushing title with 1,446 yards gained in 280 attempts for a 5.2 average, pushing his career total to 10,768. He did, however, fall off from his 1963 output of 1,863 yards in 291 carries for a 6.4 mark.

Green Bay quarterback Bart Starr regained the passing title he lost to Y. A. Tittle of the New York Giants last year by completing 59.9 per cent of his passes for 2,144 yards and 15 touchdowns. His big plus was only four interceptions in 272 attempts and a record string of 225 attempts without a steal.

In other departments, Baltimore's Lenny Moore won the scoring title, Johnny Morris of the Chicago Bears was tops in pass receiving, Washington rookie Paul Krause was No. 1 in interceptions, Minnesota's Bobby Walden was the punting leader, Tommy Watkins of Detroit finished first in punt returns and Clarence Childs of New York topped the kickoff return specialists.

Sent To Macon

CINCINNATI (AP) — Link Curtis, 22, a first baseman, has been sent to Macon of the Southern League, the Cincinnati Reds said Tuesday. Curtis played for the Reds' Peninsula and Cedar Rapids farm teams in 1964 and batted .251.

Hilario Valdespino of Atlanta led the International League in batting last season with .337.

8 Teams To Vie At Beaver Local

Eight teams will invade Beaver Local Saturday for the sixth annual Invitational Wrestling meet.

Martins Ferry will be on hand to defend its title won a year ago when the meet was only a four - team event.

Other teams entered include East Liverpool, Oak Glen, Bridgeport, Portage Southeast, Weirton and Louisville.

Preliminary rounds will begin at 1 p. m. and the final will open at 7 p. m.

The Beavers will put only two lettermen on the mat Saturday in Alan Copestick a junior who wrestles in the heavyweight division and Farnum Shasteen, a senior at 112.

Trophies will be given at the meet to the winners of each weight division and a championship trophy will go to the winning team. The trophies are being donated by the Beaver Local Boosters Club.

Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Rhome Top Back By Narrow Vote

By The Associated Press

Tulsa's Jerry Rhome and Notre Dame's John Huarte were so close in the voting for college football Back-of-the-Year honors that one fellow voted for both of them.

But Rhome, who set almost as many records as the guide book typesetters, got the narrow nod in the annual Associated Press poll.

Rhome set 10 college records for moving the football before he even played his last game for Tulsa and added seven more — and a little scratching around among the figures will probably locate a few more.

The Tulsa star set records for pass completions, touchdown passes, yards passing and total offense for a season — among others — as he led the nation's college passers by a wide margin.

Rhome was also the nation's total-offense leader.

In a three-season career, including one at Southern Methodist, Rhome also smashed most of the career college marks, including completions and passing yards.

Among single - game marks established by the fabulous passer were seven touchdown passes against Louisville, and 35 completions for 488 yards and 504 yards of total offense against Oklahoma State.

Over 10 games, Rhome had 224 completions in 326 attempts, an unprecedented .687 mark, and had only four passes intercepted.

Huarte, who led Notre Dame to a great season marred at the end by the loss to Southern California, finished third in total offense and 11th on the passing list.

EL Matmen Lose 25-16 To Weirton

Bob Marshall (165) and heavyweight Chuch Taylor recorded pins for the Potters. Marshall threw Jones in 3:01 and Taylor put Magonne away in 3:37. Whit Foster captured the Potters other victory gaining a 6-0 decision over Okey.

Football Hits New Mark In Attendance

NEW YORK (AP) — College football reached an all-time high in attendance in 1964 attracting a total of 23,354,477 spectators.

The figures, released today by the Nation Collegiate Athletic Bureau, showed an increase of 1,117,383, or 5.02 per cent, over the 1963 total.

Both previous highs were set last year when 22,237,094 turned out, an increase of 4.76 per cent over 1962.

It was the 11th straight year that crowds at college football games were on the upswing. During that time the attendance climbed 40 per cent over the 16,681,731 in 1953.

Attendance increases were spread all over the country, with nine of the 11 major conferences showing gains. Three of those conferences, the Big Ten, Big Eight and Southeastern, set all-time records for average attendance per game.

Team Wins, 76-72, In 9 Extra Periods

DWIGHT, Ill. (AP) —Dwight had to go through nine overtimes Tuesday night before finally posting a 76-72 Illinois high school basketball victory over Reddick.

The two teams were tied 62-62 at the end of regulation time. They then remained tied 62-62 through the first seven overtimes.

Cards' Late Deal Lands Francona

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The world champion St. Louis Cardinals have turned Tito Francona into a last-minute Cinderella, acquiring the veteran outfielder from Cleveland just before the clock struck midnight Tuesday and ended major league baseball's interleague trading period.

The Francona transaction, in which the Indians will get a player to be named later in addition to an unannounced amount of cash, was the 13th made during the month-long period in which National and American league clubs can trade with each other.

Including the player to be delivered by the Cardinals, 31 players will have changed uniforms. In addition, eight more players have been shuffled in four other trades since the 1964 baseball season ended.

Charley James was traded to Cincinnati along with pitcher Roger Craig for Reds' pitcher Bob Purkey and outfielder Johnny Lewis and pitcher Gordon Richardson were sent to the New York Mets for pitcher Tracy Stallard.

The inter-league trading period ended with 13 major league clubs having completed at least one transaction. All but four American League clubs — New York, Detroit, Baltimore and Kansas City — have made at least one deal since the end of the season.

Royals' Coach Blasts NBA On Rough Play

By The Associated Press

Coach Jack McMahon of the Cincinnati Royals has followed up charges by St. Louis owner Ben Kerner of "roughouse tactics" in the National Basketball Association by blasting opposing clubs for "getting away with murder" against Oscar Robertson.

McMahon's verbal broadside Tuesday night was fired only hours after Kerner met with NBA President Walter Kennedy in New York, citing play in the league as "the roughest I have seen in my 18 years of professional basketball."

McMahon said opposing players are "handling" Robertson illegally. "They're putting both hands on him every time he moves. You cannot use your hands to impede the progress of a player."

Robertson said: "The refs say you have to be moving to get the foul. I don't understand this. Everytime I do it to them, it's a foul. They won't let me play that way. If they can come out and put hands on you, you should be able to do the same to them.

"Boston plays all over you," Robertson continued. "But all the teams are doing it now. The guy picks you up high. You make a move — they grab you and hold you.

Kerner said Kennedy had told him that a special meeting of NBA referees would be called immediately to discuss his charge. The Hawks' owner said the NBA president had told him the referees would discuss the game in which St. Louis star Bob Pettit was injured.

Pettit was hurt when he collided with a Los Angeles player and fell to the floor.

Tuesday night, the injury-riddled Hawks lost to the Celtics 124-109 as Boston reeled off 18 straight points late in the second half, forged a commanding 109-81 lead and breezed to the victory.

In the nightcap, masked marvel Wilt Chamberlain scored nine straight points in overtime for a total of 58 as San Francisco edged the New York Knicks 134-132. In the only other game scheduled, the Detroit Pistons swamped the Los Angeles Lakers 131-116.

Patriot's Holovak Gains Coach Of Year In AFL

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP) — "It's an honor. But I'd trade everything for a victory over Buffalo Sunday — and that championship."

The reaction sums up Michael J. Holovak of the Boston Patriots, just named American Football League Coach of the year by The Associated Press. No matter how well things might be going, Iron Mike always acts like a man who has another — and bigger — job ahead.

This week he does.

Holovak's Patriots, the defending Eastern Division champions, play Buffalo here Sunday with that regional crown at stake. If the squad which Holovak has inspired gets past that one as the odds-makers predict, Boston will have a chance to avenge last year's 51-10 title game loss to San Diego Dec. 26.

"I'm pleased, no doubt about that," Holovak said of his selection today, then added, "Does a 15-year contract go with it?

Holovak referred to Oakland's Al Davis, 1963 winner, whose Raiders slipped from a Western Division contender to a 4-7-2 record this season.

Rated the coach of any year by rabid Patriots' fans, the former Boston College star fullback and coach has the highest winning percentage of any AFL mentor, .708, on a 34-14-4 record. His closest rival is San Diego's Sid Gillman, who has a 46-25-1 mark for .648.

Holovak took over the team with a 2-3 record in 1961 and piloted it to a great 7-1-1 sprint finish. Boston was 9-4-1 in '62

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I'm writing to say how much I appreciated the hint which appeared in your column last year just before Christmas. It worked so well in our family that I think it should be repeated so that other mothers might enjoy the holidays, too.

Your advice about having Christmas dinner on Christmas Eve really worked for us. There was less excitement, so everyone ate better and enjoyed the entire meal.

Then, on Christmas Day, I reheated some of the leftovers, sliced some ham and fixed a buffet on my table. Whenever we were hungry, we just helped ourselves to whatever we wanted, as often as we wanted, and it was wonderful. . .

My husband and I spent the entire day relaxing and enjoying the company of our children.

PATRICIA STEVENS.

And, folks, a Mrs. Philip Powell wrote about this wonderful idea last year. She said her husband decided that she should be in on some of the fun of watching the children enjoy themselves Christmas morning and NOT in the kitchen trying to get a big meal which, when ready, was never eaten because the children were too excited with the things Santa had left.

Mrs. Powell also used fancy paper plates to make it more festive so there would not be a lot of dishes to wash later.

She brought peace into her household on this glorious day and not only that, but she didn't have to stand in the kitchen and do all the cleaning up afterwards. I think this is a wonderful way really to enjoy the holidays. So, if you have your Christmas tree Christmas morning, why not have your lovely dinner (which you have worked so hard on) on the Eve?

And may the glory of the holidays be with you all.

LOVE,
HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Do not throw away caps from empty detergent bottles.

Glue two of them together, put narrow rick-rack or pretty, colored adhesive tape over the seams and sprinkle on glitter or glue small stars on them, from your dime store. Use these for Christmas decorations on your small Christmas tree!

ANNA JOHNSON.

DEAR HELOISE: I've discovered a grand use for a baby bathinette. It is a perfect aid for Christmas gift wrapping.

The tub itself holds the spools of ribbon with only the ends dangling outside ready for winding into bows. Inside the tub the ribbon spools are free to roll around without eventually finding their way to the floor.

The lower tray holds my assortment of wrapping papers, and the top 'table' part is just the proper back-saving height, and its size has proven to be adequate for wrapping packages, large or small.

Try it — you'll never give up that bathinette even if you're about to be a grandmother!

ELAINE S. KAY.

DEAR HELOISE: One more use for your nylon net:

Last year I hung a curtain of it across a corner of the living room and pinned the Christmas cards on it. The thin net shows so little that cards have an appearance of floating in air, and it holds many cards.

L. LUCAS.

DEAR HELOISE: At Christmas time, when I have several small gifts for several different families, I just put the name of each family on a large shopping bag and as I wrap a gift, I put it in the right bag.

The shopping bags make for easier delivery, also.

HELEN L. CLARK.

Band Entertains At Chester PTA

The Junior High Band presented a concert at the meeting of the Intermediate - Junior High Parent - Teacher Association of Chester Monday night at the school auditorium.

Fifth and eighth grade pupils presented a choral reading entitled "Story of the Christ Child." Jeff Collins gave a Christmas reading.

Group singing was led by four eighth grade girls. A Christmas art and craft display was held in the home economics room.

Mrs. Roy Cashdollar and committee served refreshments. The table was decorated in a holiday theme. The next meeting will be held Jan. 25.

Ex-Ohio Commerce Head Gets ICC Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — John W. Bush, former director of the Ohio Department of Commerce, has been elected vice-chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission and presumably will become chairman in 1966.

Bush was named to the No. 2 job Tuesday. The ICC is unique among government agencies in that its chairmanship changes hands in rotation.

Charles A. Webb of Eagle Rock, Va., vice chairman during the past year, will take over the top job in 1965, succeeding McGregor Goff. Webb, 55-year-old Democrat formerly of Portsmouth, Ohio, was named to the commission in April 1961 by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Heights PTA Has Program

The program included musical selections by a small group from the Sweet Adelines directed by Mrs. Nancy Beaver, group singing of carols led by Mrs. Marwynne Serafy and vocal and piano selections by students.

A medley of carols was sung by a combined chorus of first, second and grade pupils accompanied by Mrs. Alice Brown, and the fifth grade chorus accompanied by Robert Lorah sang "Christmas Lullaby."

The Rev. Edwin McDonald of the LaCroft Church of the Nazarene led devotions and brief business was conducted by Jack Wheeler, president.

About 150 attended with the third grade parents being honored. Refreshments were served by fourth grade mothers. The next meeting will be held Jan. 25.

Vote On 4 Issues At Primary May Cost $11,807 In County

If four statewide issues are voted upon at the primaries in May, it would add an estimated $11,807 to the election bill in Columbiana County, Frank R. O'Hanlon, Election Board clerk, said today after compiling figures requested by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

Primaries normally would be held next year in only seven cities and major villages, affecting a total of 95 precincts, O'Hanlon explained. But if the state issues are submitted, it would require the operation of the 70 other precinct polling places at the primary—for a total of 165, he pointed out.

O'Hanlon's estimate shows the bill for the primaries in May would be $15,581 under normal circumstances, but would rise to $27,388 if the four issues are submitted. Rental of polling places and compensation of precinct judges and clerks would be two of the major items of additional expense, along with the cost of ballots and poll books.

O'Hanlon said Brown apparently is gathering a statewide total on the anticipated cost of submitting the issues in a so-called off-year.

Four cities and three major villages that nominate party slates in May would be the only subdivisions normally affected by the primaries. They are East Liverpool, Wellsville, East Palestine and Salem cities and Columbiana, Leetonia and Lisbon villages.

Petitions circulated in East Liverpool and Columbiana County for one of the issues have been forwarded to the Election Board for a check on the validity of the signatures.

The petitions were circulated statewide by the Ohio Council for Education, seeking a measure to increase the state sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent.

Brown forwarded 77 part petitions with 1,076 signatures to the Election Board here for a check on the names. When the job is completed, the board will certify its findings to the secretary of state. Overall, petitions with 131,249 signatures were filed with Brown. He then returned them to the areas in which they were circulated for the signature check.

O'Hanlon pointed out that no Ohio Election Board had made provision for countywide voting at the primaries when estimating its budget for 1965.

"Consequently, we will have to dig for the money to make up the difference," he commented.

Meanwhile, the board is moving ahead with preparations for the special election Jan. 5 in the Beaver Local School District on a 5.4-mill levy for operating funds.

Ballots have been delivered to the board by the Wellsville Publishing Co., the contractor, and poll books are expected to arrive next week, O'Hanlon said.

Supplies will be distributed to presiding judges on Monday, Jan. 4, from 9 a.m. to noon at the board's office on W. 6th St. O'Hanlon emphasized that all supplies will be distributed from the office here, although under normal circumstances some of the presiding judges would call for the materials at the board's office in the Courthouse in Lisbon.

The supplies will be returned to the East Liverpool office after the polls close.

36 At Lisbon Area Church Brotherhood's Ladies Night

The Men's Brotherhood of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ of Lisbon held its annual Ladies Night Christmas dinner party at the Leetonia Presbyterian Church Monday with Homer Ferguson master of ceremonies. Thirty-six attended.

A Christmas program in the church parlors opened with devotions led by Charles Morlan. A humorous reading was given by Guy Frantz and two vocal duets by Mrs. William Ring and Ferguson.

A book, "The Forever-Christmas Tree," a story of an aged Japanese, was reviewed by Mrs. George M. Nace.

During business, members approved a donation of $20 to the Lions Club Christmas clearing house, along with a quantity of canned foods for Christmas baskets for needy families.

A Christmas gift was sent to the World War I nurse at a nursing home in Canada, and who is sponsored by the group.

The auxiliary is sending two large boxes of personal Christmas gifts for service women patients of Veterans hospitals, which include totebags made by the parley.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 11 at the home of Mrs. Russell Shaw of Jerome St.

The Victory Club's Christmas dinner party was held at the Wick Hotel Monday evening and later the group met at the home of Mrs. Charles Hill of W. Lincoln Way for a gift exchange and social time.

Prizes for 500 were awarded Mrs. Marion Figley and Mrs. Victor Williams.

Mrs. Gertrude McCord of W. Maple St. will entertain Dec. 28.

4-H News

Columbiana County 4-H Club work is emphasizing more than ever the importance of Parent participation, the main reason being that much of the work carried out by the youngsters is centered around the home, according to Bob Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H work.

Some projects call for work similar to that being done on a larger scale by the parents. This lets club members work hand-in-hand with their parents so that these youngsters start early learning the duties involved in operating a business or home.

The success of a boy or girl in 4-H and in life depends a great deal on his parents. Parents help the youngster decide on projects that will best suit the family and home situation. The parents usually finance the project.

"Parents co-operation has been and will continue to play the key role in the success of the 4-H'er, and many 4-H advisers in the county have enrolled the parents as well as the boy or girl when conducting the 4-H program in their community," Lewis said.

CIC's Drive Hits $15,000 In First Week

Cash and pledges total approximately $15,000 in the first week of a $50,000 drive launched Dec. 9 by the Community Improvement Corp. to move ahead with its objective of attracting new industries to the East Liverpool area.

George A. Shaw, president, issued the first progress report today as about 55 volunteer campaign workers continued with the task of contacting some 300 prospective contributors.

"Our campaign is off to a fine start, but $35,000 more is required to attain the goal," Shaw said.

"Volunteers are busy every day calling on business and professional people and other individuals and institutions for their assistance," he said.

"We have been highly pleased by the fact that some contributions have been received from individuals who were not approached. That is the sort of community spirit that will make this drive a success."

Shaw gave a report on the organization's work to date and outlined plans for the future. He stressed that 15,000 cities throughout the nation are competing to attract the 500 new industries launched each year in the U.S.

The Chamber of Commerce office is headquarters for the drive. Contributions may be mailed to the CIC at Post Office Box 94.

Chester Kiwanians' Guest Has Yule Topic

An illustrated talk, "Christmas Remembrances," was given by Mrs. C. Donald Vogel at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall auditorium.

Nineteen attended the dinner meeting at which the Rev. Jerry Dietch gave the invocation. Allen Sims of Oak Glen High School Key Club was a guest.

Sidney Porter, who was scheduled to speak, was unable to attend because he was out of town. The club will meet for dinner Tuesday, then attend a community Christmas carol sing.

He Honked The Horn, Cow Horns The Honk

This happened after McCart, 19, of New Port Richey, spotted the cow standing in the middle of the highway Tuesday night.

McCart stopped his car and honked the horn. The cow charged and pierced the front of McCart's car in two places. It then wandered away into the woods.

Threatened With Extinction

A Peregrine Falcon carries a pigeon dinner home to its nestlings on the Palisades, overlooking the Hudson as the river appeared in the early years of this century. The bird, its nests often molested by egg collectors, disappeared soon afterward from the East Coast area.

Birds in Natural Settings Inspire the Fight to Save Those That Are Dying Out

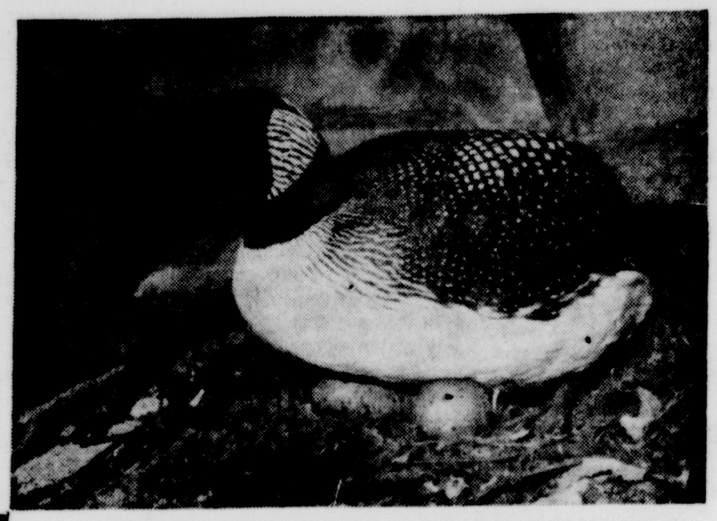

Dr. F. M. Chapman

An abundance, a tragedy and a timely warning are embodied in the hall's exhibits. The abundance refers to birds with large populations still in forests, cities and along shores. The Carolina Parakeet, massacred by the hundreds, and the Labrador Duck, once a common winter visitor to Long Island, are extinct, highlighting an unnecessary tragedy. Other birds range from the Whooping Crane, which is down to 30 living birds in the world, to the American Egret, a bird back from the edge of extinction since the outlawing of the traffic in plumes.

The hall is dedicated to Dr. Frank M. Chapman, who joined the museum staff as assistant curator in 1888 and remained an associate until his death in 1945. During those 57 years, he saw the bird collection grow to three-quarters of a million specimens. The ornithologist was a prime force in saving threatened species.

The American Egret is once again plentiful. Dr. Frank M. Chapman was a prime fighter of the plume traffic which once threatened birds.

Gen. McAuliffe Still Boils Over German Ultimatum

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even after 20 years, the words on the yellowed sheet of paper made the old soldier mad.

"It was the last sentence, that lousy last sentence that did it," growled Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe as he reread the German surrender ultimatum delivered to him in surrounded Bastogne.

The German commander gave McAuliffe two hours to surrender his 101st Airborne Division and the Belgian town it held. After that, the German warned, massed Nazi artillery would "annihilate the U.S.A. troops in and near Bastogne."

Then came the German wind-up sentence — the one that stung McAuliffe because he felt it held a sneer.

It said: "All the serious civilian losses caused by this artillery fire would not correspond with the well-known American humanity."

On impulse, the hard-jawed commander of the "Battered Bastards of Bastogne" replied with one defiant word — "Nuts."

That reply made McAuliffe a living legend of World War II.

Now 66 and retired from the Army and a big chemical company, the veteran paratroop general talked about the epic siege as he sat in his comfortable apartment, high above a busy Washington avenue.

Though his hair and bristling eyebrows are iron gray, he still wears a chesty air of command.

The Battle of the Bulge, of which the Bastogne siege was a pivotal episode, started at dawn 20 years ago Wednesday.

That was when the badly wounded German army, after retreating grudgingly since the Normandy invasion the previous June, launched its last-spasm offensive through the snow-cloaked Ardennes Forest. On Hitler's orders, Nazi panzers and infantry drove at the American line in a bid to split the Allied front and reach Antwerp.

Before long McAuliffe found himself defending Bastogne, a small cobbled village, with 14,000 men — an assortment of paratroopers, tankers, artillery men.

"Bastogne was the hub of a very important road net," McAuliffe said. "If we denied that town to the Germans, it would pretty well destroy their offensive."

This he was determined to do.

By Dec. 18, the German ring had closed around Bastogne. The American riflemen, machine gunners and bazooka men dug in and stood off assault after assault.

A heavy fog kept the U.S. Air Force grounded. There was no air support — and transport planes couldn't get through to drop supplies.

On Dec. 22, three Germans — two officers and an enlisted man — approached the American lines under a flag of truce.

They delivered an envelope containing two sheets of paper. These were brought back to McAuliffe in his cellar command post back in the town.

He has those two sheets still, locked away in a strong box. He took them out and reread them as he reminisced.

One sheet held a neatly typed message in German. The other was a duplicate in English. They were addressed to the U.S. commander of the encircled town of Bastogne.

They told McAuliffe he was surrounded — which he already knew all too well — and said surrender was the only possibility "to save the encircled U.S.A. troops from total annihilation."

Unless he surrendered in two hours, the message said, a German artillery corps and six heavy antiaircraft artillery battalions were ready to blow up the Americans.

It was signed "The German Commander."

McAuliffe said that although he was indignant, he decided to send the Germans a formal communication and that he had his one-word reply typed on a piece of paper.

Col. Joseph H. Harper, now a retired major general here, carried back the "nuts" message to the still blindfolded Germans. Harper told the German leader what it said. The German said he knew the word, but didn't understand the context.

"It means the same as 'Go to hell;' do you understand what that means?" Harper told the German.

The Nazi party was sent back into its own lines and the battle resumed.

The fog lifted enough to allow an airdrop that day and on Dec. 24, McAuliffe said.

As he recalls it, the climactic assault came about 3 a.m. Christmas morning. A new panzer division attacked from west of the town.

The next night, Dec. 26, an American tank column broke through, and the siege was over.

McAuliffe said his losses had totaled 4,000 of his 14,000 men — dead, wounded, and badly frostbitten from long exposure.

What is his lasting impression from those days?

"The courage and determination of the American soldier," the general said.

His summation: "We fought a good battle, and the Lord held me by the hand."

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Last Sunday our family drove more than 100 miles to visit my brother, his wife and their newborn son. Midway through dinner my sister-in-law left the table to take care of her infant. When we finished the meal we all went back to the bedroom to say goodby.

There sat my sister-in-law, breast-feeding her baby. Since then our children who are 11, 9, 7 and 5 years of age have been bothering me with questions about sex.

I'm furious with my sister-in-law for placing me in this embarrassing position. I hadn't figured on mentioning sex to my children until they were older. This stupid woman knew we were leaving for home right after dinner. Why couldn't she have waited another 30 minutes?

I'd like to take this matter up with her but I don't know what to say. She reads your column religiously so will you please lambaste her for rudely leaving the table and behaving in this repulsive manner in front of my children?—DISGUSTED.

Dear Disgusted: I see nothing rude or repulsive in your sister-in-law's behavior but I see much that is ignorant and oafish in yours.

She was seeking privacy and you invaded her room. So why criticize her? Furthermore, if your children don't know how life begins and how infants are nourished by their mothers, it's time they learned.

You say you planned on telling them when they were "older." How much older? You are 7 years too late with that 11-year-old right now.

Ask your doctor for some literature to guide you. And get going, or you'll have four kids who are as mixed up as you are, Lady.

Game, Set, Match

Dear Ann: A friend of mine whom I will call Mrs. R. asked if she could borrow my card table set.

Three weeks later Mrs. R. started divorce proceedings. I didn't want to bother her about my table and chairs at that time. The next I heard she had moved into an apartment. That was last July.

Yesterday I telephoned Mrs. R. and asked her to please return my card table set. She said, "I did. Immediately after the party." I asked, "To whom?" and she replied, "I left them on your porch."

I'm so burned up I'd like to take her to court. Should I? — FAVOR-DO-ER.

Dear Do-er: Mrs. R. should not have left the card table set on the porch. A person of integrity would have offered to buy you a new set but obviously she is a cipher.

Insanely Jealous

Dear Ann: How can I keep my sanity when the boy I love turns up at a dance with a girl I hate?

I have loved Jimmy since the third grade. The girl he took to the dance Saturday wouldn't pour a glass of water on him if he were on fire — then she found out I was crazy about him and went all out to take him away.

This cheap little flirt has done the same thing to two other girls. The only boys she wants are the ones who belong to someone else.

Why would a boy drop a fine girl like me for a terrible person like her? Seeing them together tears me up something awful. How can I get Jimmy back? — ROBBED FROM.

Dear From: The girl didn't knock him over the head and drag him off, did she? I don't believe a boy friend can be "stolen." It's a lost cause unless Jimmy decides on his own that he prefers you after all.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

17th, 18th Century Wrecks Nationalized

PERTH, Australia (AP) — The West Australian Government has "nationalized" all 17th and 18th Century shipwrecks lying in territorial waters around the coast.

Education Minister Edgar Lewis said English and Dutch mariners had, by accident, left the state many valuable legacies, but many of them were being exploited by skin divers for personal gain with no regard for their historical value.

He said rival groups had used explosives in their search for bullion and coins from one wreck and had destroyed valuable relics in the process.

The new law is aimed at protecting the historically valuable wrecks. Nine are known to be off the coast and the whereabouts of six have been charted.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Discipline Should Start At Infancy

"Teen-Agers need more restraint and guidance by parents than they usually get; they really would like to have such from their parents" for their own sense of security. In words to this effect, you have recently read this advice in magazine articles and books and heard it on the air. You often may have been puzzled to have seen it coming sometimes from the same "experts" who were warning parents some years ago not to be so strict with their young children.

Dr. Garry Myers

How strange that some of the very same parent - counselors who are telling parents now to "clamp down" on the teen-agers had been advising parents to let these same children when two, four or six to do as they please. At least many young parents supposed they were so advised and gladly followed the advice.

—:—

HOW FUTILE, furthermore, it may be to tell parents of teen-agers or pre-teen-agers to stiffen up in discipline and guidance of them. However wise many parents think this advice is, they often feel helpless in trying to follow it. Having brought up their children through their early years with excessive permissiveness, as they supposed they should, many parents find it practically impossible now to guide and discipline effectively their children from ages ten to sixteen.

These frustrated parents are sadly worried. Some of them must be saying to themselves, "Why did I believe such silly doctrine that my children, when they were mere tots, should not be reasonably restrained, when it could easily have been done? Why was I led astray? What can I do now?"

MOST OF these parents of older children who have got out of hand might as well face reality. They certainly can't hope to get these older children under control all at once. But they do have more resources at their command than they think they have. The father and mother should sit down together and take stock of their resources. But their greatest hope is in finding ways to win genuine love and esteem of these older youngsters, to build on their strengths and to celebrate worthy successes in them.

The place to begin is at the crib, to bring up the child so he will have achieved self-discipline when in his teens.

My bulletins, "A Parent's Prayer", "Love and Restraint", and "How Juvenile Delinquency Can Be Curbed" may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Calcutta PTA Marks Yule

A program of Christmas music was presented by a choral group of 22 under the direction of Robert Sprague, Beaver Local music director, at a meeting of the Calcutta Parent-Teacher Association Monday night at the school.

The Rev. Thomas Clyde conducted devotions. The attendance banner was won by Mrs. Helen Ward's room. Mrs. Ann Kirkbride announced the membership has reached 300.

Second grade homeroom mothers served refreshments. Calvin Graber, principal, thanked the parents for providing food for welfare baskets.

Claire Unrue, president, urged the members to vote in favor of a new tax levy for the school district. The Rev. Clyde led carol singing.

Fifth grade pupils will present the program at the next meeting Jan. 18.

SANTA and the SINGING TURTLE

The turtle and the Snowman arrive at the Festival. The turtle explains to Santa that he is worried about the Prince and doesn't want to sing until he arrives. Suddenly Womp appears.

CHAPTER 11

But George, the Singing Turtle, shivered suddenly under his shell and felt the way turtles feel when they know danger is near.

"There's something about him I do not like," he whispered to the Snowman. "Why do they let him in?"

"He is a musician," said the Snowman. "See, he carries a flute in his hand."

"He doesn't look like a musician," grumbled George. "He doesn't even look as if he likes music!"

SANTA WAS on the stage welcoming everyone to the Festival. He wished everyone a Merry Christmas and said it was too bad the Festival had to be on Christmas Eve when they were all so busy, but he hoped it would make Christmas all the merrier.

He told how long and hard the musicians had practiced and how far many of them had traveled in order to perform. Then he listed the prizes and he said the first prize winner was to be named Grand Musician to the Queen of Fairies.

This was so high an honor the very thought of it caused the audience to gasp and George missed two heartbeats from pure excitement.

"Now let us enjoy ourselves," said Santa. The Fairy Queen waved her wand and the Festival at last began.

The first performer was a tiny cicada dressed in pale blue gauze. She sang a song called "Lazy Days" about the wonderful times of summer.

The little cicada had a sweet haunting voice and George could have fallen in love with her because she sang so beautifully and summertime was his time, too.

But all the while she was singing he was thinking about the missing Prince and he could not really enjoy himself at all.

A SWARM of bumble bees called the Buzzing Baritones were next. They sang a love song with such feeling that half the audience wept. The Queen Fairy said it was beautiful and Santa Claus called for an encore.

"Don't worry," said the Snowman to George. "I am sure you can do better than that."

"I am not worrying about that," said George. "It's the Prince I am worrying about."

He stretched his head out as far as it would go searching for the Prince over the heads of the crowd. All he could see was the black - cloaked figure of Womp, the man witch. George drew in his head and shuddered.

Now an ibxe and a yak were on the stage playing a duet on bassoons. They showed great skill and musical knowledge, but their music was far out and futuristic and it was clear they would never win the prize.

Next came a bullfrog who sang hymns in a rich basso profundo. Then the Pied Piper from Storybook Land danced across the stage, playing gay tunes on his pipes, and all the littlest pixies left their seats and danced after him.

After that, a praying mantis played the cello; King Cole and his Fiddlers Three played several jigs, and Three Men in a Tub used their tub for a drum and beat out a fine, stirring march.

NEXT CAME three chipmunks who called themselves the Chipmunk Chatterboxes.

They stamped their feet and beat on pots and pans and slashed sticks across an old washing board and sang at the top of their voices. They played such rollicking tunes and had so much fun doing it that Santa Claus himself leaped from his chair and did a jig in front of the Queen Fairy.

It was something to see and something to hear! The audience swayed and clapped and stamped their feet.

Only George was quiet, for he knew, suddenly and for sure, deep in his turtle heart, that the Prince wasn't going to get to the Festival at all.

Ford Most Optimistic

3 Major Auto Companies See 1965 Business Fine

DETROIT (AP) — The three major auto companies agree that business will continue fine in 1965, with Ford Motor Co. the most optimistic.

Henry Ford II told his annual year-end news conference Tuesday that car and truck sales in the United States next year might reach 10.1 million vehicles.

A day earlier, Chrysler President Lynn A. Townsend said 1965 car and truck sales would total at least 9.5 million and could exceed 10 million.

Frederic G. Donner, chairman of the board of General Motors — largest of the auto makers — said Sunday that 1965 sales could surpass this year's expected total of 9.2 million.

The big difference between the Ford board chairman and Donner was in their estimate of the 1965 domestic car market. Donner said it could exceed 7.8 million units; Ford predicted it would reach 8.7 million. Townsend's figure was about 8 million.

Ford, asked to explain the wide difference between his projection and that of General Motors, replied:

"The 8.7-million figure is a very realistic one as far as I am concerned. I am quite optimistic. I don't know what influenced Mr. Donner's conclusions."

The Ford chairman, as Chrysler and General Motors did earlier, expressed confidence that the industry would maintain its growth pattern. He said about $700 million of the company's three-year $1.6-billion expansion and modernization plan would be spent in 1965, compared to $465 million this year.

Ford emphasized labor matters more than the other two auto makers, mentioning recent local strikes which cost Ford about 130,000 cars and trucks from its production schedules.

Ford said he did not question the right of the United Auto Workers, or other unions, to strike but added: "I am questioning the excessive bargaining power of unions and their abuse of this power."

Of over-all business conditions, he said:

"The keystone to our present prosperity, I believe, is the decision, reflected in the tax cut, to rely less on government spending and more on the powerful forces of private enterprise."

Resort Is Protected From Its Creditors

CINCINNATI (AP) — Alpine Resorts Inc., a skiing and sports center opened last year at Morrow in Warren County, has been granted court protection from creditors. The owners filed a petition for financial reorganization Tuesday in U.S. District court, saying the resort is solvent but unable to pay debts as they mature.

Judge John W. Peck granted a motion to prohibit any court proceedings against the resort after the owners said creditors would be paid on a percentage basis. A statement showed $383,319.73 in liabilities and $716,292.92 in assets. The resort is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Houston.

Success Wouldn't Have Changed Bulge

German General Declares Nazi Doomed At Bastogne

NEUBERG, Germany (AP) — The German general who was ordered to capture Bastogne 20 years ago said today that had his mission succeeded, it still would not have won the Battle of the Bulge for Hitler.

On Dec. 16, 1944, Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt threw 250,000 of Germany's crack troops into a massive onslaught on thin U.S. defenses in the Ardennes Forest. The German objective was to cross the Meuse River and drive to Brussels and Antwerp.

Gen. Heinrich von Luettwitz, commanding the 57th German Armored Corps, was ordered to take Bastogne, a small Belgian frontier town at an important road junction. It had to be secured to safeguard the attackers' further advance, Luettwitz said.

"It was a desperate effort doomed from the outset," said Luettwitz, now 68. "The terrain was wholly unsuitable for any major attack. The Ardennes Mountains, rolling, forested country deeply cut by steep and twisting valleys of mountain streams, had few roads on which our armor could move.

"When we attacked, fog strangled the Allied air operations. But any military leader of common sense should have known that the Allies' air superiority would finally win the battle.

"Under these circumstances, capturing Bastogne or not didn't make much difference in the over-all picture.

"After easily overrunning the American defenses, my troops advanced quickly toward Bastogne, which we were to reach on the evening of the 18th.

"That evening intelligence reported to me that they had intercepted American radio signals ordering the 101st U.S. Airborne Division from Reims into Bastogne. It became a race between us and the Americans of who would be in Bastogne first."

Bayerlein had sent a reconnaissance party toward the American lines. It reported everything clear, and Bayerlein decided to advance on the reconnoitered path, a country lane, rather than the main concrete road.

"From what Bayerlein told me, he could have taken Bastogne at that hour practically without a shot," Luettwitz said.

"But instead, after advancing a few hundred feet . . . heavy tanks sank axle deep into mud and got stuck. To reach the fringe of Bastogne it took Bayerlein until 3 p.m. Dec. 19.

"By that time the Americans had moved the 101st Airborne into Bastogne, and Bayerlein told me that he could not take it without heavy fighting and big losses."

Luettwitz consulted 5th Army headquarters. The 5th Army's commander, Gen. Hasso von Manteuffel, ordered him to bypass Bastogne if one last attempt failed to take the town.

"On the 21st, in the morning, I received orders from 5th Army headquarters to call on the American defenders to surrender. I instructed Bayerlein accordingly. The surrender message was delivered on the 22nd.

"Bayerlein handpicked a team of four men headed by a captain as emissaries. They departed for the town equipped with a makeshift white flag. After an hour they returned, minus the white flag but carrying a white piece of cardboard 10 by 10 inches.

"The sign read: "To the German general . . . "Nuts" . . . from the American general."

"Frankly, I didn't know what nuts meant. I don't eat nuts, and there weren't any nuts available anywhere around. An interpreter explained the meaning of the word to me and asked me whether I wasn't insulted. I wasn't.

"All I can say now is that I recall having had the deepest respect for the American officer, Brig. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe."

Luettwitz said he had met McAuliffe in Paris while the German general was a prisoner of war.

"He spoke to me for about five minutes, but I only later found out that it was the man who sent 'nuts' to me at Bastogne. He probably knew who I was."

Luettwitz' troops, after failing to conquer Bastogne, pressed the attack westward. They made the deepest penetration to the west in the Battle of the Bulge but were stopped short of the Meuse.

Luettwitz withdrew his troops in good order, and shortly after Christmas Day Gen. George S. Patton's 3rd U.S. Army troops broke through the German lines from the south and relieved Bastogne.

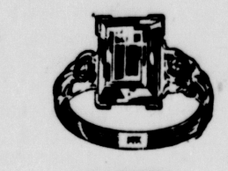

Luettwitz was captured April 16, 1945, by American troops near Iserloyn, in Germany. The Allies held him until 1948, then he settled in this town on the banks of the Danube River.

The son of a noble Silesian family, he lost all his possessions in territories now under Polish rule. But after a few lean years he set up a wholesale wine company and a small publishing company and became district agent for an insurance company.

Boy, 10, Starts Fire Destroying His Home

MENTOR, Ohio (AP) — Because his parents wouldn't buy him notebook paper for school, a 10-year-old Mentor boy told firemen he started a fire that burned down the family home Tuesday. The boy, Keith E. Coleman, has been cited for delinquency and is scheduled for a hearing Thursday, Lake County authorities said.

Mentor Fire Chief Alfred Howell quoted the boy as saying he started the fire by touching a match to the dining room curtains before going to school and did it because he was mad at his parents for not buying him the notebook paper. The 142-year-old farmhouse was destroyed. The boys's mother, Mrs. Frances Coleman, kicked in a bedroom window to rescue her two small daughters. Damage to the home was estimated at $22,500.

Louisville To Liven Up Its Street Signs

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Louisville is going to liven up some of its street signs. "No Outlet" will replace "Dead End" signs.

"The word 'Dead' carries a displeasing connotation to some people," traffic engineer Arthur R. Daniel said Tuesday.

United States currency, whether a $1 note or $100, costs less than one cent a bill to make.

Africa Buffaloes Dislike Trains

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—African buffaloes don't like trains.

Train crews freighting iron ore down through the Kruger National game reserve from a mine at Phalaborwa are worried by buffalo herds blocking the line. Rounding a bend in the game reserve in the early hours of a dark morning recently an ore-laden train ran into a herd of about 400 buffalo. Two buffaloes were killed outright, with a third trapped under the cowcatcher. Part of the train was derailed during efforts to clear the line.

A few days earlier a train had struck and killed six of the animals.

Buffaloes and trains have never got on well together, and the Phalaborwa train crews now fear an organized ambush. They report that both times: "The herd did not move off, but stood their ground, took up a threatening attitude and bellowed."

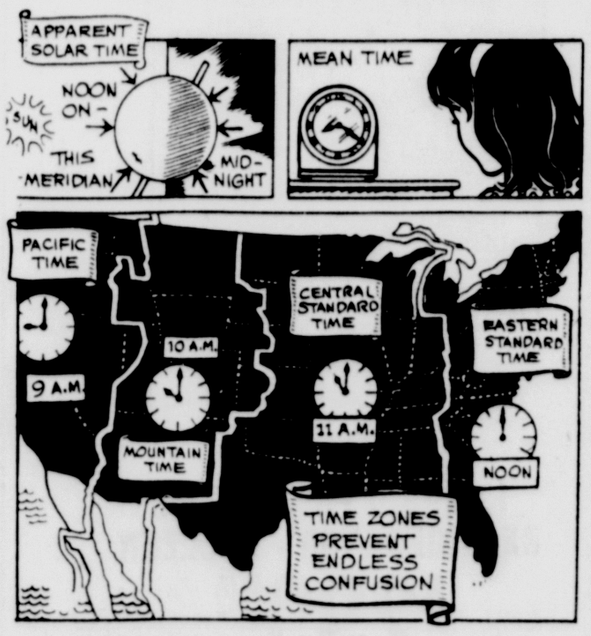

The African buffalo is known to big game hunters is probably the fiercest animal in the continent. When 400 buffalo take up a threatening attitude and bellow, you don't just stand around.

So the train crews don't know whether to go slower, with less chance of antagonizing the buffalo further, or to put on speed and get out of buffalo country as fast as they can.

Junior Editors Quiz on TIME

QUESTION: What is apparent solar time?

ANSWER: We all know that the earth is actually going in an orbit around the sun, yet the sun appears to be taking a path around the earth rising in the east and sinking in the west. Men have always used this apparent path of the sun to measure time, and still do. We call this "apparent solar time" because "apparent" means "visible" — we can actually see the sun moving across the sky each day. We count our days as ending when the sun seems to cross under the earth at midnight, with a new day beginning at once. This sounds simple. But the sun, while it keeps exact time from year to year, does not give us exact time day by day — one of the reasons being that the earth's orbit around the sun is not exactly circular, making small variations in the length of the days. To allow for this, astronomers have taken the average length of days over a year, and worked out average or "mean" time, which is what our clocks run on. Your particular time is related to the meridian, or north-south line, on which you stand. Since it would be very difficult for you to keep resetting your watch as you travel around, four areas in the country are arranged as time zones, as you see in the drawing.

FOR YOU TO DO: Study the main picture which shows what time it is in the other three zones when it's noon in Eastern Standard Time. Now find your own zone and figure out what the time would be in the other zones when it's noon in your zone.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Dieter Hits Roadblock, Asks For Help

"Encourage dieters to keep on when the going is tough and you will help them to be winners," a doctor counseled. A reducer writes. . .

Ida Jean Kain

"I lost 25 pounds and have been at a standstill for two months now. It gets very discouraging. Is there some magic formula for getting started again?"

Your reducing course is running true to form. You have reached the inevitable weight plateau. A 20 to 30 pound weight loss brings most dieters to a natural standstill period. This plateau usually lasts for four to eight weeks.

THE MAGIC formula for further weight loss is in you, in your willingness to stay on course. On the nutrition score, it will be helpful to change the character of your daily diet somewhat. If you have been eating an egg and a slice of toast at breakfast, plus fruit or juice, change to an egg and a half, and a half slice of toast. In short, increase the protein and lessen the starch. Have a scrambled egg with a second egg white; or a soft-cooked egg plus a second half-egg. In scrambling or frying, use a non-stick fry pan, no fat added.

If your menus include mainly beef, change to more fish, or have two very lean pork chops, all fat trimmed away. Have liver once a week. To discourage overeating at dinner, be sure to have a portein pick-up in the late afternoon. For dessert, choose cheese or a small serving of fresh fruit, but no sweets.

Above all, keep the score on calories. Many reducers find it helpful to mark down every bit of food consumed. This way they know the exact score.

THE RATE of weight loss is set by the calorie deficit. Regular exercise is the ideal way to increase your calorie spending and thereby establish a greater deficit. It is far better to increase your calorie spending than it is to shift into semi-starvation menus. The body is a working machine. When you cut too low on food, sloth sets in, and you tend to move less and less.

If you will add ten minuges of calisthenics daily, and take a walk of a mile or two, you will soon resume your weight loss.

The second 25 pounds of excess will come off more slowly. It is important to take the weight off gradually and to exercise as you reduce. Fast reducing should not be your aim, for the body is not functioning at its best either in mental or in physical performance during rapid loss of body weight. But a gradual reduction is almost always accompanied by an increased sense of well-being and mental and physical alertness.

Bus Service Curtailed In Teacher Pay Hike

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP) — The West Clermont School District at Amelia is curtailing bus service in order to give $300 raises to teachers with bachelors's degrees.

The Board of Education said Tuesday transportation is being discontinued for all high school pupils. Grade school and elementary pupils living within a half-mile must walk to school. Those living farther away will have to walk at least a half mile to board buses at main roads. A 2.5 mill levy for salary increases was defeated Nov. 3 and in a special election Dec. 8, the board said.

Anti-U.S. Blasts Expected To Continue In UN Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The chorus of anti-American invective in the Security Council's Congo debate was expected to continue today despite a Nigerian attempt to quiet it.

Burundi, accused by the United States of aiding the Congolese rebels, was to be the day's first speaker as the council rounded out its first week of stormy discussion.

The United States and Belgium received their first African support Tuesday. Foregin Minister Jaja Wachuku of Nigeria strongly defended their sending Belgian paratroops to the Congo to rescue white hostages from the insurgents.

"I see nothing wrong in the Congo asking for aid in a delicate operation that involved the nationals of other countries," Wachuku said.

He said African nations which have refused to send aid to Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe are to blame for the predicament Tshombe faces.

"If a government is prevented from discharging its duties by those who are regarded as brotherly states, surely the next best thing to do is to turn to those who are regarded as friends," Wachuku said.

Wachuku called on African nations to respect the sovereignty of Tshombe's government in accord with the U.N. Charter and the Organization of African Unity.

"It is not for anybody to tell the Congo who their government should be," he said.

He expressed support for a U.S. proposal that the counci send a mission to investigate interference by outsiders in the affairs of the Leopoldville government.

Wachuku's words contrasted sharply with those of Foreign Ministers Joseph Murumbi of Kenya and Antoine Guimali of the Central African Republic, who preceded him. Both accused the Western powers of trickery and hypocrisy in the rescue operation.

GOP Unit To Name Sheriff In Defiance

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP)—The Defiance County Republican Central Committee will name a sheriff to take office Jan. 4 in place of Donald V. Kehnast, 52-year-old GOP sheriff-elect who suffered a fatal heart attack Tuesday.

Under statutes revised by the General Assembly four years ago, the committee will appoint the sheriff to serve until one can be elected in the November 1966 election. Previously, such appointments were made by county commissioners.

Kehnast, for the past 10 years has been a deputy under retiring Sheriff John K. Bridenbaugh. Bridenbaugh, who has been sheriff for 28 years, will retire at the end of his term Jan. 4.

Indians speak more than 800 languages and dialects.

Stabbed To Death

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 33-year-old east side man was pronounced dead at St. Vincent Charity Hospital Tuesday shortly after he was stabbed twice in the back with a butcher knife at the poultry shop where he was employed. Homicide detectives identified him as Robert L. Brown Jr. An 18-year-old youth who worked with Browns was held without charge for questioning.

Dear Friends,

Most families decide in advance upon a doctor in whom they have confidence to call in an emergency. In like manner, it is wise to decide upon a funeral director in whom you can place your confidence in time of need. Select this man in advance, when good judgement is not upset by the stress of your grief.

Respectfully,
